The Chalkboard

St. Benedict School
Faithfully Educating God's Children Since 1911

Along with Peter, James and John in today's Gospel, we, too, witness Jesus transfigured. In unison with Peter, we say, "It is good that we are here!" Let us rejoice in the reality of God's gift, our Redeemer and Friend. Join us on Fridays at 2:00 for Stations of the Cross, led by our Jr. High students.

Our students begin IOWA testing, our standardized test for the year, on February 26. The School Safety Committee will meet on March 5 at 4 p.m. and the Local School Finance Council (LSFC) will meet for the first time on March 5 at 6:30 p.m. We have always had a Parish Finance Council and will now begin meeting for the School.

St. Benedict School's Open House will be Thursday, March 8th, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. Please spread the word if you know of any family with children starting preK through 8th grade for the 2018-2019 school year. Parents and faculty will be on hand to give tours and answer questions. If a family cannot make this date, they can contact Jane Rush at the school to schedule a tour: 740-432-6751.

Join us for the Auction next Saturday! Because of two funerals in the vicinity, parking will be tight so give yourselves time to find a spot, maybe behind the courthouse. The very talented and entertaining John Rome will serve as auctioneer. The food is always wonderful. We have collected some terrific items for every interest.

Pastor's Letter

Our St. Benedict School has several events in the upcoming month of March that are great opportunities to appreciate the place the School has in our community and in our parish.

This is Auction Week! This fun annual event showcases the generosity and creativity of our whole community. It is our school's biggest fundraiser. May the Lord bless this year's auction to be a great benefit for both the School and our greater community. See the St. Benedict School Facebook page for visual previews of many of the items available at this year's auction:
www.facebook.com/St-Benedict-School-163204170437630/

Often when I speak with Bishop Monforton he asks about our school. He has mentioned several times that he understands how essential our school is for the outreach of our parish in this part of the Diocese and region and he has pledged his ongoing support for and commitment to St. Benedict School. I certainly echo that. Working with Principal Jane Rush over these three years as a pastor has always been a blessing for me. And, the beginning steps of our search for our next principal have already been very encouraging as well.

Mark your calendars for this year's St. Benedict School Open House, on Thursday, March 8th, from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. This is a great way to meet the teachers and staff and get a feel for the mission of the School firsthand.

In addition to events connected with the School, this upcoming Saturday, March 3rd, is also the annual Men's Day of Renewal for the Diocese of Steubenville. We are blessed that it is being held so close to us, at St. Stephen's in Caldwell. This year's keynote speaker is Mike Aquilina, a highly entertaining speaker and writer, who is gifted at relating historical figures and events to contemporary daily life. He is the author of more than 40 books, including How the Choir Converted the World and The History of the Church in 100 Objects. The morning session talk is at 10:00 a.m. with confessions available at 11:00 a.m. Ushers will hand out brochures with registration information at the end of each Mass this weekend.

May the Lord help us to walk together ever more peaceful and joyful, always ready, for the gift of eternal life!

READINGS FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

March 4, 2018

“Zeal for your home will consume me.” These prophetic words describe the action of Jesus as he drove out the money changers in the temple. Are we consumed with zeal for God? As we prepare to celebrate these sacred mysteries, let us ask God for mercy and forgiveness for our sins and the sins of all.

We live in a world broken by self-sufficiency and material greed.

The reading from Exodus, the Ten Commandments, calls us to a just law which recognizes our dependence on God and the rights of our neighbor. The gospel presents a seemingly harsh Jesus. In the sacred temple, Jesus lashes out against greed and selfishness, focuses our lives on God and the things of God, and reveals himself as the true “temple.” Jesus was harsh with those who insisted on the letter of the Law but did not live its meaning. Our hope for salvation is not found in either doggedly following the Law (self-sufficiency) or in material wealth (greed) but in the Resurrection of Christ.

Exodus 20:1-17

I, the Lord, am your God who brought you out of Egypt.

- How do you manifest your “trust in the Lord”?

1 Corinthians 1:22-25

We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to the Jews and foolishness to Gentiles.

- What does this statement of St. Paul mean to you?

John 2:13-25

Destroy this temple in three days and I will raise it up.

- What do I most treasure in my life?

The Ten Commandments and the

Cleansing of the Temple: why are these two readings put together in next week’s Sunday readings for the 3rd Sunday of Lent?

Scripture passages have different levels of meaning. These include the literal level, the figurative level, the spiritual level and the moral level. Considering the different levels can help us to find a connection between these two passages that is meaningful.

In next Sunday’s Gospel, the Temple can represent at least two realities. On the one hand, that is, on the literal level, it does indeed refer to the Temple in Jerusalem that had been built ~950 BC by King Solomon from the inspiration and planning of King David, which was then destroyed by the Babylonians (~586 BC) and then rebuilt and damaged a couple more times until King Herod conducted some major rebuilding and expanding in Jesus’ day. Finally, after Jesus’ death and resurrection, the Romans completely leveled the Temple in 70 AD.

By the time of this destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem by the Romans, Christians had been worshiping in locations other than the Temple, had their own “synagogues” and had seen in the “breaking of the bread” and in worship in the Holy Spirit a fulfillment of the worship at the Temple. In time any gathering of two or more praying in Jesus’ name and anywhere that the Mass was offered regularly were seen as ways and places that the worship of the Temple was fulfilled.

On the other hand, on a spiritual and moral level, each of our hearts can be understood as the Temple. It is the “place” in our hearts from which the Lord reigns in our lives.

And, this is the season of Lent! So, Jesus’ cleansing of the Temple is an especially fitting Gospel for us to hear and to pray with.

This is also why the First Reading about the Ten Commandments also can be matched well with next week’s Gospel. As Jesus cleanses the Temple of our hearts and souls He enables us to live the Ten Commandments with better joy and with a stronger desire for what is right. We pass through the “thou shalt not” dimensions of the Ten Commandments and desire to live the spirit of those Commandments.

At the very end of next week’s Gospel is a classic verse about the depth of Jesus’ compassion for our waywardness! Jesus “did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well” (John 2:25). May this Lenten season be a time when His compassion sinks into our hearts both individually and as a community, so that He may reign in our midst both with the Holy Spirit’s renewing presence and with His faithfulness!
