The Chalkboard

St. Benedict School
Faithfully Educating God's Children Since 1911

Good news! Father Paul and I would like to make a preliminary announcement that a candidate for the Principal position has agreed to join the St. Benedict School community for the 2018-2019 school year! A more formal announcement will appear in a future bulletin.

On this Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord, Jesus calls us to go out to all the world to tell the Good News. In many ways, Catholic Schools do just that. I have been honored to be a part of an institution that promotes the Gospel call to love and serve the Lord. In my last month with the students, I am trying to take things one day at a time, treasuring the moments and thanking God for the chance to be a part of an amazing community at St. Benedict.

Happy Mothers' Day! My own mother was a nurse and mother of 10. She sacrificed a great deal to raise us. In her own way, she showed me God's love, patience and forbearance. I smile as I watch my irises grow and bloom this month. They were her favorite flower! God bless our mothers! Bring your mom to the Salad Luncheon on May 18th!

Grades K-2 enjoyed a field trip to The Farm this past Friday. Many parents joined them on the excursion. Next week, 7th & 8th graders will enjoy a day at Cedar Point and 6th graders will go to COSI in Columbus. Join us for our May Crowning celebration on Monday, May 14th, at 1:30 p.m. in St. Benedict Church.

This Tuesday, May 15, at 1:00 p.m., we will hold an all-school evacuation drill. First Responders will arrive at the scene, as this is also a training exercise for them. Please don't be alarmed if you hear or see sirens coming to the school! This type of drill will be used more often each year for every school.

Registration for St. Benedict School, preK-8th grade is ongoing through June 15. Please contact the school for an information packet, to schedule a tour or if you have any questions. Tuition for 1 child for the 2018-2019 school year is $2,100 (parishioner) and $3,100 (non-parishioner) for K-8. Families can also register children after August 1. Contact the school office: 740-432-6751.

We still welcome registrations for Kindergarten and can schedule a screening. Please contact the school by May 31 if you would like to learn more. Currently, we are expecting 12-14 students in our Kindergarten for 2018-2019.

Blessings, Jane Rush

READINGS FOR THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

May 20, 2018

We gather to celebrate the great Feast of Pentecost. Our scripture readings remind us that the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit empowers us to take the good news of Jesus Christ to all people.

The mission of the church is to do the work of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus breathed into his disciples his own life, the Holy Spirit. By the power of that Spirit, the church is born. They are now to do what his death and resurrection were all about—forgive. Peace is the greeting of the Risen Lord and peace is His continued presence in the church.

The Spirit comes upon the disciples with power. In the name of Jesus, in every language, they are empowered to preach about the great things God has done.

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

There appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each of them.

- Describe a time when you experienced being empowered by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

There are different spiritual gifts but the same spirit.

- Which are the gifts of the Spirit you have come to know have been given to you?

John 20:19-23

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

- How do you know the peace of Christ in your life?

For most of the major feast days we celebrate in the Church for our Mass

readings we often have several choices of readings we could draw upon. That is the case for next week’s celebration of the Feast of Pentecost. The variety of possible Old and New Testament readings is meant to help us experience in our own lives more of the powerful impact from both the original events and the Church’s more recent experiences of those graces.

Pentecost has at least three layers of meaning, based on the experience of the early Church and of the Church throughout the centuries. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit is for the sake of 1) proclaiming the Good News that Jesus is alive, 2) living with growing depth our relationship with Him, and 3) drawing people of all nations into a new unity in Jesus. Our readings reflect all of these layers.

Options for readings at the Saturday Vigil Mass include the first reading from Genesis 11. That’s the famous Tower of Babel passage. Pentecost represents a reversal of the language chaos that resulted from the people of Babel’s arrogant desire for fame. The Holy Spirit draws us into relationships with others, into that new unity in Jesus. The Holy Spirit helps us to communicate more clearly as is needed when we are in better relationships.

Other optional Vigil Mass first readings include prophecies from Ezekiel and Joel, which tell us that it is God’s plan that all of us participate in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Holy Spirit and that even our desires will change from being given a new heart like God’s own heart.

The optional New Testament/Second Reading is a powerful teaching from St. Paul’s Letter to the Romans, chapter 8. There, in verses 26 & 27, he teaches that the Holy Spirit helps us when, for various reasons, we find it difficult to pray. That could be both because we find it hard to pray for someone and because we just don't have the "oomph" to pray. The very groaning of our hearts can be converted by the Holy Spirit into a prayer with the Holy Spirit himself doing the praying in us and for us! This helps us to experience difficult moments when we find ourselves weak, including moments of temptation, to become moments of very effective grace.

All three of the Gospel options teach us about the range of ways we can experience the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit can be like a river that gives on-going refreshment to our lives (John 7:37-39). The Holy Spirit helps us to have the words we need to give praise and honor to God (John 15 & 16). And, while the first reading from Acts, chapter 2, describes the Holy Spirit as a strong, driving wind that shook the building where the apostles, Mary and other disciples were in hiding, the Gospel passage from John 20 – on the evening of the Resurrection – describes the Holy Spirit as bringing peace and mercy.

May we, also, experience the Holy Spirit giving us the kind of freedom that St. Paul describes in his letter to the Galatians. The Holy Spirit helps us to do those kinds of actions against which there is no law (Gal. 5:23). All of these help us to proclaim, with the assistance of the Holy Spirit, "Jesus Christ is Lord!"

Pastor's Letter

This week's Pastor's Letter is very brief because over this past week I attended our Annual Priests Retreat for the Diocese of Steubenville. Thank you for your prayers. I thank Fr. Bob and Fr. Jonas for helping with various things such as daily Masses, including a school Mass, that enabled me to participate in the retreat. It has been a welcome several days of rest, prayer and fellowship. I'm looking forward to sharing with you over these next few weeks some of the reflections gained from the time of retreat.
