Parish School of Religion

We are now taking registrations for the 2018-2019 PSR school year. Faith is not just for preparing your child for sacraments, it is a lifelong journey. The PSR program will begin on Sunday, September 16. This year our students in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 will prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. The Sunday morning high school program will no longer be offered.

We encourage all of our high school students to take part in the activities of the Christ Our Life Youth Group which will be offered throughout the year. The church considers you, the parents, as the primary teachers of the faith.

Registration forms can be found in the Marian Room of St. Benedict Church and in the back of Sts. Peter & Paul Oratory. Please register your child early. Forms and fees can be placed in the offertory basket at Mass, mailed to the parish office at 701 Gomber Avenue, Cambridge, OH 43725 or given to Pat Farley.

READINGS FOR THE 22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 2, 2018

Purity of heart comes from within. As Christians, our hearts must rest in loving God and in loving one another. As we prepare to celebrate, let us call to mind the times we have failed to love the Lord with our whole heart.

The focus of the readings is twofold. First, we have the teaching (commandment) to follow God's law and not replace it with laws of our own making. Second, we have Jesus' condemnation of legalism. He insists that we not concern ourselves with the purification of objects, but rather with the purification of our lives, our intention, and our behavior. This twofold focus draws our attention to the danger of hindering inner, thoughtful obedience to God by redirecting obedience to external laws made by humans.

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe.

- How faithful am I to keeping the commandment the Lord has taught us to observe?

James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

All good giving and every gift is from above.

- How often do I give God the glory for all his gifts to me?

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person, but the things that come out from within are what defile.

- What within my heart defiles me?

Next week we will return to the Gospel of Mark for our Sunday Mass Gospel. Six weeks ago we read from the end of Mark, Chapter 6. Next week we'll begin with Mark, Chapter 7. These next several weeks will focus on the theme of being disciples with our hearts set sincerely on the Lord.

In next week's Gospel Jesus teaches us, "Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." Jesus said this regarding foods, in particular. Indeed how we feed our souls – movies, music, books, newspapers, websites, etc. – is fundamentally important to how our souls are formed so that what flows out from within is good. Over these past five weeks of Gospel passages from John, Chapter 6, we have encountered and reflected upon Jesus nourishing our souls as the Bread of Life.

Regarding next week's Gospel, a Swiss physician named Adrienne von Speyr, who died in 1967 and who had experienced the wounds of Jesus – the "stigmata" – develop on his hands, offered these reflections about being attentive to the first stirrings of evil in our hearts, so as to more consciously turn toward thinking about the Lord and about goodness:

"Evil thoughts can surface first, for a moment, as mere temptations; but when someone resists them and arms his heart against them, they do not make him unclean. But if [a person] welcomes them and allows them to grow, and they [flow out from] him with the strength of the developed thought, of the evil intention, then they make him unclean."

He then encourages us to consider two additional approaches for dealing with "unclean" thoughts. First, consider what our lives would be like if we had never experienced the grace of God and His mercy. This can be sobering and can then strengthen us to focus on thoughts of the Lord. This line of thinking can make us more conscious of the reality of goodness. Secondly, although our thoughts are in many ways our own world, something wonderfully private, what flows out from our thoughts nevertheless does affect others. From these considerations, we are to "thank God for His grace, and ask Him to extinguish everything sinful glimmering within us, through the power of His grace" (from Magnificat devotional magazine, August 2015, p. 424).

Over these next few weeks, we will also be reading from the Letter of St. James in the Second Readings. St. James gives us a great teaching on how our spiritual lives can become more complete. He says that not only are we to be people of prayer and study of spiritual realities but also we need to put our faith into practice, serving the needs of the least around us. That concreteness of our faith then helps to reinforce our interior devotional life of our thoughts and in fact helps us to be spiritually alive.

May the Lord, through the gifts of his mercy, inspirations, courage and faithfulness in doing His will, help us to grow in greater depth in being his beloved disciples – his beloved sons and daughters.

Pastor's Letter

We have some initial good news about the funds sent to St. Elisabeth Parish and School in Caracol, Haiti. This past collection was earmarked as for helping to re-open their medical clinic and we received and sent about $3,000. Evidently our relatively small amount was enough to at least be re-establishing the clinic. Because of this, when a Korean outreach group heard that there was a clinic in Caracol, they are making a much more substantial contribution to stock the clinic more completely! Without the clinic being established at least in a basic way through our contributions, the Korean group would likely bypass Caracol with their donation!

Please note that for our Wednesday Eucharistic Adoration we need additional regular adorers for the 7:00 p.m. hour. If you would like to at least give it a try, please let me know by speaking with me or through contacting me at our parish offices [(740) 432-7609].

Some people have asked about reliable news sources for information about such topics as the recently released Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report. I had overheard, likewise, that in 2002 when the first wave of sexual abuse reports began leading up to the U.S. bishops meeting in Dallas to develop better responses, one of the reporters of a major news source asked just before an interview, "So, what exactly is a bishop?" He knew then that the news reporting wouldn't be as complete as it should be. Anyway, several reliable websites for news include:

- Catholic News Service (www.catholicnews.com)
- Vatican News (www.vaticannews.va)
- Crux Catholic News (www.cruxnow.com)

A good site for participating in prayers for healing is called Pray More Novenas. Fittingly their website address is praymorenovenas.com. They have a daily prayer novena now called "The Novena for the Abuse Crisis: Transparency, Accountability and Healing."

May the Lord help us to serve and witness together, alive in Him, always ready for the gift of eternal life.
