The Book Fair opens Monday, October 22, and will run through Sunday, October 28, in the St. Benedict Church social hall. Please stop by after Mass and browse this year's selections; all proceeds will benefit our school library. Many thanks to Sr. Helen Marie for coordinating this annual event.

On Thursday, October 25, we will celebrate Grandparents Day starting with a 10:00 a.m. School Mass, lunch, classroom visits, Book Fair and end the day with an early dismissal. We hope many of our grandparents are able to join us on that day.

The 5th grade class is busy tracking the weather through the use of a new Weather Station that was recently installed thanks to Mrs. Jones-Hayes' husband and Mr. Stoner. Our "future meteorologists" are learning while having fun collecting and analyzing weather data. They will continue their adventures in science when they travel to Flint Ridge next week.

Thank you to Mrs. Farley and crew for once again coordinating the annual Autumn Salad Luncheon Your support is truly appreciated!

It is hard to believe that we finished the first quarter of this academic year this past Friday. I am seeing much student growth thanks to the hard work of our students and dedication of our teachers. St. Benedict School is a great place to learn and minister!

In His Name,
Sue Sanders, Principal

St. Benedict School Scholastic Book Fair

READINGS FOR THE 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME October 28, 2018

As we gather on this autumn day, our gospel reading speaks to us of the gift of sight that comes to us from our faith in God. In order to better prepare ourselves to celebrate these sacred mysteries, let us search our hearts and ask God for mercy for the times we have wavered in our faith.

Our readings again focus on God's loving care expressed in real terms. In the reading from Jeremiah he tells his people of the good news of their release from exile in Babylon. It is cause for joy and praise, especially for the blind, the crippled, those who are lost; all those who are weak. They will rejoice in God's loving intervention.

Jesus expresses this help for the blind in his healing of Bartimaeus. This story reveals its theme of ultimate salvation in the words,

"Teacher, I want to see!"

"You are healed, because you believe in me."

An interesting image in both the first reading and the gospel is the road. Jeremiah tells us that God promised a straight road on which no one would stumble and fall. Mark tells us that Bartimaeus called out for pity as he was sitting by the side of the road. When he receives his sight, he immediately follows Jesus on the road—a biblical symbol for the way to salvation.

Jeremiah 31:7-9

I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble.

- What in my life is a "stumbling block" to my salvation?

Hebrews 5:1-6

You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

- How do I witness my redemption in Christ Jesus?

Mark 10:46-52

Go on your way: your faith has saved you.

- How strong is my trust and faith in the healing power of Jesus?

This week's readings (for Sunday, October 21st) and next week's readings (for Sunday, October 28th) make an interesting combination.

This week considers the reality of suffering. The kind of suffering into which the Lord asks us to enter is not a meaningless suffering. Rather, it is the suffering related to servant leadership. "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all" (Mark 10:44). And, the prophet Isaiah envisions the Messiah as one who embraces sufferings for the sake of lifting up and saving others: "through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear" (Isaiah 53:11).

Next week, especially in the 1st Reading and the Gospel, the readings invite us to rejoice in various forms of healing and restoration. We will read about healing and restoration not only for individuals but also for whole communities.

In the Gospel we read about a blind man named "Bartimaeus." Bartimaeus represents not only each of us individually and the kind of faith God wants us to experience growing in our hearts but also us as a community with steadfast faith and a deeper vision.

Bartimaeus was someone who needed to beg for assistance. Likely there were many others like him whose life situation had reduced them to this state. Evidently his family was not able to care for him. His family was known so that people called him the son of Timaeus. He evidently had to sit by the roadside to beg; presumably this is something he had to do regularly.

However, again, even though he was in this dire state of dependency on the generosity of others for physical sustenance, his faith in Jesus had grown. Even though he could not see Jesus physically, he was able to recognize that Jesus had the power to heal and restore. He could already see that Jesus had the authority that the Messiah would have. This faith was a determined faith that could withstand people telling him to be quiet. In fact, the more people told him to be quiet, the more he kept calling out. When his pleading resulted in an opportunity to meet with Jesus, he sprang up enthusiastically. Once healed physically, he follows Jesus on the way. He represents the Church as the restored People of God, following Jesus on the way to eternal life.

This can be seen as a fulfillment of the prophecy cited from Jeremiah 31:7-9. This is a prophecy of restoration of the tribes of Israel after their exile, which was just beginning as Jeremiah was writing this prophecy. This gave the community great hope during their exile: "They departed in tears, but I will again restore them" (v. 9).

May we experience this same gift of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ growing stronger each day, both as a community and as individual disciples.

Pastor's Letter

Whew! For me this has been quite a full past couple of months. Both from preparing for and then traveling to Italy for the ordination of Deacon Nicholas Ginnetti, including a 10-day journey overall, then being a primary planner for our annual clergy convocation this second week of October and finally hosting our diocesan youth rally here at Christ Our Light Parish: all of these together with other beginning-of-the-school year tasks have, again, made for a full couple of months. I'm looking forward to settling in a bit and to getting back to more of a day-to-day and week-to-week pattern of activities focused here, including home visits, nursing home visits and classroom visits.

As the school year is now underway, so is a time for adult faith formation possibilities. We just concluded the first full cycle of the Christ Life approach to personal and faith formation yesterday (Saturday) with a one-day retreat. I'm looking forward to evaluating our experiences of it with our participants and considering when would be best to go through a new 3-season cycle, building upon our experience of this first time through. We are a "pilot parish" for the Diocese of Steubenville for Christ Life, and our experiences are meant to help other parishes be able to implement it as well. It is meant to help its participants to have a renewed personal encounter with Jesus and with life in the Holy Spirit. As more and more parishioners participate the parish becomes renewed from within.

Fr. Jonas has offered to present a series of Wednesday evening gatherings on the history and meaning of the Mass. Now that the Christ Life gatherings have concluded, that Wednesday evening time slot is open for other faith formation opportunities, such as these presentations. They will begin on Wednesday, November 7th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Marian Room. All are welcome to attend.

We have also begun RCIA for this year, meeting on Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. If you would like to participate for the sake of an overall review of your knowledge of our Catholic faith, please contact either me or Pat Farley [at our parish offices (740) 432-7609] so that we can have resources on hand for you. You are welcome to join us for this even if you wouldn't be preparing for baptism, confirmation or first Communion as an adult. Many people have found it to be helpful to explore our faith in more comprehensive way as an adult.

May the Lord help us all to journey in faith together ever more joyfully and faithfully, always ready for the gift of eternal life.
