The light goes before us, truth goes before us, beauty precedes us.
God goes before us.

Pope Francis Angelus, 6 January 2014

Those wonderful words given by the Holy Father in celebration of the Epiphany become a reminder to us of the need for awareness.

It is easy for us to get caught up in the details of life, the routine, the slavery to the calendar, that we forget to find the light, and the truth, and the beauty that guides us on our journey.

As we enjoy these winter days (and no, I'm not being sarcastic), we are invited to find the beauty around us, that beauty which precedes us, that beauty which is an expression of God's presence.

And find it within as well...because it is there.

Thank you for being you!

-Fr. Michael Griffin

Just a Thought...

It's the world's most embarrassing song.

"New Year's resolution—stay this good-looking!"
