Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 28, 2018

Fr. Michael's Musings

You may notice as you read through the bulletin that we have a date set for our Fall Bazaar...and there are some exciting changes in store.

After working with the Bazaar Committee and with consultation from the Pastoral Council, it was decided to do a few things:

1. The Fall Bazaar will be renamed the Sunday FunDay and Dinner (mostly because we have lost our Persian roots and most people don't know what a bazaar actually is anymore).
2. The Sunday FunDay and Dinner will be only one day...this year, on Sunday, September 16.
3. We will have extended dinner times from late morning into the evening to meet many schedules.
4. We will, of course, still have our traditional and fantastic Roast Beef Dinner and all the sides the city of Aberdeen has come to know and love.
5. There will be changes in the Midway to make it more exciting for the kids...these are still in the works; but I think everyone is going to love it.

This is not just a fundraiser for our parish, but a time to grow together as a community, and to bring light and joy and fun to the city around us.

Keep your eyes open...more information coming!
It's gonna be FUNtastic!!
Have a holy and great week!!
