From the Workbench

My trip to the Holy Land as a seminarian was filled with many new and wonderful experiences. We got to see the sights of greatest religious significance for Christians and Jews and Muslims. The crown of all of the de being in Jerusalem. We went to the Dome of the Rock and the Wailing Wall and the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. The city of Jerusalem was a treasure trove of culture that you could experience just walking down the streets. The markets in the Holy Land were of particular fascination to the men on our trip. We went through the great Bazaar there and wondered at the sights and sounds and smells that surrounded us. Walking down aisles bursting with exotic fabrics and clothes and spices and foods was an experience that I won't soon forget. Bazaars are a common sight in the Middle East and they are a significant part of the whole culture of the region.

Now Bazaar may be seen as a pretty exotic word to be throwing around in South Dakota in the fall, but after much planning the St. Mary's Bazaar is here. This weekend is an opportunity to grow and share the Catholic Culture here in Aberdeen. People may come for the food and the Bingo but when we are all gathered together we can share much more than that. We are gathered together to share the love of Christ with all who come through the doors.

However we cannot share that love if we ourselves don't show up. The scripture reading this weekend tells tales of rich food and banquets. The primary band we are called to each week is the Eucharistic feast offered in the church but this weekend we are called to take the gifts we receive from the Mass and share them with all the people we meet at the Bazaar. By spending our time and sharing our lives with the people around us we will be doing our part to help build up the kingdom, here at St. Mary's.
