As we approach the great national festival of thanks, I wanted to pass on a little activity that I presented the other day at our Family Education gathering.

This is a great activity for families or individuals.

Make a list of ten things (such as family, faith, friends, nation, parish, foods, hobbies, etc) and then, as a family or alone, think of ten things under each category for which you are thankful and then....boom...quick as that you have a list of 100 Things for which you are thankful!

It is such a wonderful gift to foster a sense of gratitude and appreciation for the things around us, the grand things and the little things. It is the best and fastest antidote for the cynicism of our age.

We also remember that the word Eucharist means "thanksgiving," so plan to come to Mass on Thanksgiving morning at 9:00.

And know that I am thankful, enormously thankful, to be your pastor; everyday!! I love you with a thankful heart!!

-Father Michael Griffin
