Father Michael's Musings

Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Peace be with you.

And with your Spirit.

And with these words, and the anointing with Chrism and the laying on of hands, our Bishop and Shepherd, Paul Swain, confirms our brothers and sisters.

The ritual itself is simple, and the effects are subtle and beautiful. We may not see the fire that falls upon them, we may not see the gift of the Holy Spirit transforming them in that nervous, beautiful moment, but we will.

Oh yes, we will.

Our parish is transformed this weekend, in this Sacrament, as is the Church, as is the world.

We do not know what the future holds, or how each of them will make their mark, live their faith, transform everything around them, but in the subtlety of this Sacrament, we know they will.

We are better because of them, holier, stronger, braver, more passionate, more joyful, more loving. We are an Easter people because they embrace this gift.

Rejoice in them, love them and be grateful for them. This weekend, they begin to change the world.

Everybody smile...the boss is here.

"My husband will be home at any moment—quick, take the accordion!"
