Sunday, April 30 - 1:00 pm First Communion

Fr. Michael's Musings

After the magnificent joy of the past weekend, and the beautiful celebrations of the great Three Days, we have another chance to celebrate the transformation of our parish next weekend.

After the magnificent joy of the past weekend, and the beautiful celebrations of the great Three Days, we have another chance to celebrate the transformation of our parish next weekend.

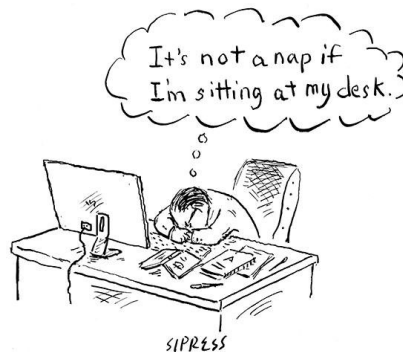

Bishop Swain will be with us next Sunday to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at 8:30 am and the gracious gift of the Holy Spirit will be sealed within our Confirmation class, and will flow over the parish.

We will be transformed and the world will be transformed through them. What a gift and a joy.

Then, a few hours later, at 1:00 pm, our second graders will gather with the families and we will celebrate their First Holy Communion, and our gathering around the Altar celebrating the Sacrament of unity and love will be expanded. They will be filled with Christ and make Christ known, each in their own lives.

Then, the couples preparing for Holy Matrimony will begin to finish their preparation and soon our Church will be alive on weekends with their joyous celebrations.

We thank the Risen Christ that He forever watches over us and renews us in such beautiful ways, in such beautiful people. We are an Easter People...and we celebrate it all the time!!

Just a Thought...
