Father Michael's Musings

When you look at this amazing picture of our newly Confirmed sisters and brothers, what do you see?

First of all, you see them smiling and glistening still with the oil of the Holy Spirit. You see them surrounding our Bishop, a sign of our unity as a universal Church.

You see the possibilities, and the expansive future that young people embody so beautifully.

But when we look deeper, we see something wonderful. They are students from Aberdeen Central, Aberdeen Roncalli, and from Warner.

They are men and women; some are scholars and some athletes, some proficient in art and some in science. They are blessed with different personalities, gifts, talents, abilities, and yet, they are one, and they are a part of the beauty that is Saint Mary Parish.

It's a great reminder. The differences don't matter, it is always love that makes us one...and the beauty of this parish is that all of us, so different, are a part of it.

"I once mistakenly thought I was dating someone for a whole month because I couldn't tell that his texts were sarcastic."

Just a Thought...

I suspect the May flowers are going to be spectacular.
