Fr. Michael's Musings

On Thursday of this week, Timothy Smith, a seminarian of our diocese will be ordained a transitional deacon in preparation for his ordination to the priesthood next year.

We were so blessed with the news from the Vocations Office in Sioux Falls that (soon-to-be) Deacon Smith will be coming to Saint Mary Parish to minister this summer.

I have heard some extraordinary things about this young man and

I'm very excited to have him see the joy and the beauty that is life here in the Hub City and in this parish. What a great final preparation for priesthood you will be for him.

So I am asking for two things from you.

First of all, please remember to pray for Timothy Smith this coming Thursday as he is ordained a deacon. It will be a beautiful celebration that will be even more beautiful with your love and prayers flowing to the Cathedral.

Second of all, please welcome Deacon Smith in July with the warm and joyful heart that is the hallmark of Saint Mary parish. Please feel free to give him encouragement, advice and your love for the weeks he is with us.

You will be seeing and hearing a great deal of him, and we are all blessed by that! Keep being amazing!!
