Fr. Michael's Musings

It has long been a Catholic tradition to have votive candles available in our churches.

The nature of votive candles is that they burn for someone, that they are offered to someone. Thus, here at Saint Mary, we have candles burning before the images of the Holy Mother of God and Saint Joseph.

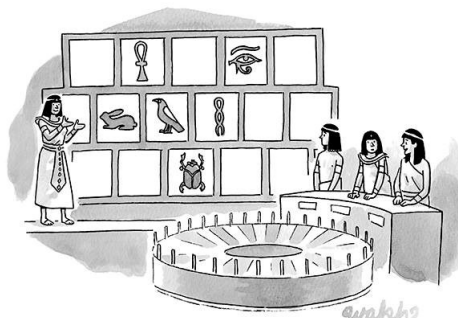

When we request their prayers and blessing, we have the option of leaving them the offering of a candle. In our church, the blue candles are for the Mother of God, the amber candles for St. Joseph. At the same time, any color candle may be lit as an offering to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

In addition, we now have two candle options, the large 6-day candles we are used to, and now a bank of 6-hour candles.

It is always so touching to come into the church and to see these candles burning brightly, expressing such love and devotion. Thank you for sharing your light and love!
