Fr. Michael's Musings

Well, last Friday, we bid a loving good-bye to Deacon Tim Smith as he prepares to head back to the seminary for his final year before ordination to the priesthood next spring.

What a wonderful gift he has been to our parish these last months, and just an energetic, youthful, startling and joyful presence in the rectory.

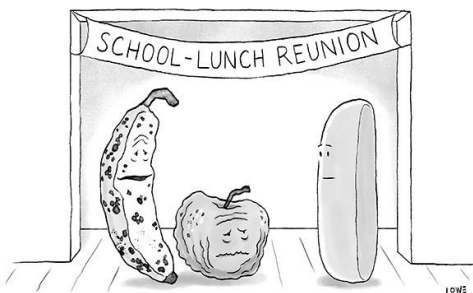

It is such a privilege to have had him with us, and we are honored to keep him in our prayers as he prepares for ordination. As we now know utterly, he is an exceptional young man and is, and will be, a blessing to our diocese. Godspeed Deacon Tim.

We continue to hold Fr. Mark Axtmann in our prayers as he recovers from brain surgery to try to control his epilepsy.

I have heard from his dad, Fr. David Axtmann, that Fr. Mark passed his pre-surgery cardiology exam, and made it through the initial five-hour brain surgery well. The doctors are hopeful and we are prayerful.

Your love and support for both of these men is a beautiful gift, and I am truly touched to witness it...and proud and honored to be your pastor! I love you all.

"Twinkie! You haven't changed a bit! What's your secret?"

Just a Thought...
You all are such good Prayers
