Fr. Michael's Musings

Every year, in July, the life of the Church in the diocese of Sioux Falls faces transitions and changes as priest assignments and transfers begin.

To this end, we warmly wish Fr. Mark Axtmann God's blessing as he begins his new ministry at Avera St. Luke's with residence at Sacred Heart Parish. May God reward him for his faithful life and deep love for St. Mary's.

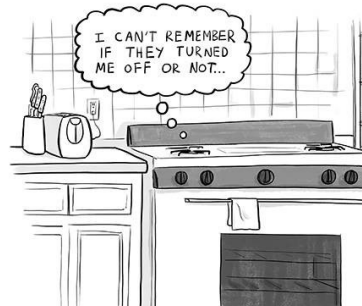

We also welcome with joy Fr. Grant Lacey who has moved in and is ready to go after a wild assignment at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Sioux Falls.

May he find a gentle and loving welcome here...I know he will!

These transitions are always a good reminder that priests and pastors come and go, but the parish endures. That is a good lesson, for the ones who pray in the sanctuary, and the ones who pray in the pews.

There are always transitions and changes, and we are not afraid because the Lord is the one who guides and blesses who we are and what we do.

Changes are scary and awesome all at the same time; let us see and celebrate the Holy Spirit who keeps us moving forward.

Just a Thought...

Water from the sky?
That's odd.
