Fr. Michael's Musings

When it was decided to close our church for the coming week for cleaning while I was gone, I called Fr. Mark Lichter at Sacred Heart and asked if that church would be available while I was gone for funerals.

He agreed immediately and asked me to remind you of their weekday Mass at 7:30 am and to invite you to attend.

It is a wonderful gift, warm and inviting. I know there has been a lot of competition in the past between our parishes, even from the start, but it is nice to remember that we are brothers and sisters in Christ, and love binds us together.

I have, and will always have, a great deal of love and affection for our gothic neighbor across the tracks. I will always be honored to call Sacred Heart my home parish, even as I embrace St. Mary with all my heart as my home and family these beautiful years.

It is our prayer and goal that both our parishes thrive and grow and continue to be a source of Gospel Joy for our city and surrounding area. We grow together and love, share and witness together.

Let us always give thanks to God for our family on the south side. I know they are thankful for us too!

"It's always 'Sit,' 'Stay,' 'Heel'—never 'Think,' 'Innovate,' 'Be yourself.'"
