Be Changed by the Ones You Encounter

Rev. Chip Hines
Pastor

I write this column on Wednesday, April 22, 2015, two years to the day after I celebrated Krystle Campbell's funeral at St. Joseph Church in Medford after her death in the Marathon Bombing in Boston. Two years ago I was left the task of trying to find words to help bring some small bit of solace to the Campbell family and the many people who were there for her Mass. The church was full and everyone from Governor Patrick to Cardinal Seán were gathered to pray for this shining soul, a person who would give you anything she had if it meant your happiness. Many loved her and the church wasn't big enough to hold all who desired to come. I think we had 200 people at least who were stuck outside.

I don't remember everything I said that day, but I do remember saying she was never really gone from us, that she would always be with us. I believe this because I'm Catholic and I know it to be true that the all souls are eternal. How many times have we felt the presence of someone we love who has passed away? How many times have we thought there might have been an intercession by their prayers? It is something we feel, but it is not just a feeling, it is real.

This may not seem so profound to some people, and perhaps it is not, but the sense of loss is usually the hardest thing to get over; that sense that you won't physically see the person any more. I think of the contacts still in my cell phone that I cannot delete for some reason. My friend Jimmy who committed suicide or my friend Fr. Dan Kennedy who died from a defective heart: these numbers I hold onto for some weird reason. I can't call them and their phones are probably disconnected, but for me holding onto them means a little piece of them is still with me every day. Now, I know they still live. They are eternal just as we are, and I believe I feel their presence in my life, as I feel Krystle's as well. I hadn't been at Saint Joseph's that long when the Marathon bombing happened, but I always felt God had placed me there for a reason, perhaps to meet the Campbells, and that experience did have a profound effect on me and I'm a different priest for it. I hope a little bit better too!

I guess my message today is that we find ourselves in places and meeting people every day and we should be changed a little bit by those encounters. We should be moved to change and grow, if it is needed and that life should not be stagnant, but should continue to flow. What a sad life we lead if we cannot change or evolve, hopefully for the better and hopefully in Christ. Look to Jesus, He is perfect and unchangeable but we are not, and to strive to be more like Him is our goal. That is how we grow and change: by following the Good Shepherd and striving to be like Him, knowing that it is the striving that is important. Perfection comes in Heaven.

Peace.

Memorial Day Mass

Come celebrate the Annual Memorial Day Mass on May 25 at 9am in the St. Francis Cemetery in Walpole. Memorial Day is a special day to remember our Veterans as well as the deceased members of our families and friends. This Mass is a wonderful opportunity to bring the parishes in our Collaborative together in prayer. Won't you consider joining us at this beautiful Mass? Most folks park along Washington Street and car pooling is suggested. Please bring a chair so you will be comfortable. Refreshments will be served after the Mass in the cemetery. In case of rain, there will be a sign at the entrance of the cemetery and this Mass will be celebrated at Blessed Sacrament Church.

Mass of Anointing

Every year Blessed Sacrament Parish celebrates a special Mass that includes the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. This Mass will be held on June 6 at 1pm in the Blessed Sacrament School auditorium. Ramps are located at the entrance of the auditorium for easy access. Light refreshments are also served immediately following the Mass. We especially invite families from all the parishes in our Matthew 13 Collaborative to this celebration as the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is always a communal experience. This Mass is especially convenient for folks who would have a difficult time entering a church with stairs. Everyone sits at tables in the auditorium and the priest comes to each table for the Sacrament of the Sick and the distribution of Communion. Refreshments will then be brought to the table after the Mass. Won't you take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to come together as a community to celebrate with each other this wonderful sacrament of healing?

Roses will be sold at the doors of the church before and after all masses on Mothers' Day weekend. Suggested contribution is $3 each or $5 for two. ## Sister St. Vincent Award Nominations

Sister St. Vincent served at Blessed Sacrament and was known for her zeal and service towards others. In memory of her, Blessed Sacrament honors a graduating high school senior in the parish who has demonstrated a similar passion for service in his/her school, parish, and greater community. If you know of a high school senior who lives out Sister St. Vincent's spirit of service, please submit a letter of nomination to Margaret Manning at the parish house or via e-mail, youthminister@blessedsacrament.org. The letter should include the nominee's name and state specific examples of how that person serves above and beyond in the community. Please have letters in by Friday May 29. ### Jeannette Penza

After more than 20 years serving Blessed Sacrament Parish in various roles and mostly recently as finance manager, Jeannette Penza will be retiring as of June 30. Her last day of work will be May 29.

Jeannette has been a member of Blessed Sacrament for 68 years and raised her three children here along with her late husband Carlo. Before joining the staff, Jeannette previously volunteered in the parish, including keeping the altar linens for 17 years. Jeannette will celebrate her 90th birthday on May 8 and has decided to slow down a bit. She has plans to spend time with her great-granddaughter Lily Grace.

She would like parishioners to know that “it’s been a great journey and I have become acquainted with many wonderful parishioners.” She added her sincerest thanks to Fr. Tim Kelleher, who was pastor when she began working at Blessed Sacrament, and to Fr. Chip Hines, Fr. Vinnie Doolan, and Fr. Joe Diem and to the many staff and volunteers she has worked with over the years.

Second Collection

This week’s second collection will be the monthly Balance the Budget collection, typically held on the first Sunday of each month, and is used to do just that: balance our operating budget and offset the deficit. Many thanks for your generosity!

Sung Acclamations During Mass

For the Easter Season, please turn to #880-884 (Mass of Creation) in the pew hymnal to join in singing our sung acclamations during Mass. Please lift your voices in song!

Book Club

Blessed Sacrament Book Club meets next on Tuesday, May 12 at 7:30pm in the Community Room. The book selected for discussion is The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck. The Pulitzer Prize-winning epic of the Great Depression chronicles the Dust Bowl migration of the 1930s and tells the story of one Oklahoma farm family, the Joads—driven from their homestead and forced to travel west to California. Steinbeck’s powerful landmark novel is perhaps the most American of American classics. Newcomers are welcome.

A Mass for this group will be celebrated on Wednesday, May 13, at 7 PM in the Community Room of Blessed Sacrament Parish. If you are separated or divorced, you are certainly welcome to join them at the Mass. Following the Mass, there will be a meeting during which you can meet members of the group, and you can become acquainted with the group’s ministry. ## Make Way for Ducklings

Ann Marie Rosa, a longtime parishioner at Our Lady of Sorrows, will be the celebrity guest reader of "Make Way for Ducklings" at a Sharon community festival on Saturday, May 16, 10 am to 1 pm. Called the Bob-O-Thon, the event is a celebration of Bob Sondheim, the late athletic director of Sharon High School. Proceeds of the event will fund a scholarship for a scholar-athlete in the senior class. The event will start with a short walk from the high school to Memorial Park Beach, followed by live music, food, an origami demonstration and a fund-raising rubber duck race. For more information, contact Mike Molyneux at mmolyneux76@gmail.com.

The Lord's triumph, on the day of the Resurrection, is final. Where are the soldiers the rulers posted there? Where are the seals that were fixed to the stone of the tomb? Where are those who condemned the Master? Where are those who crucified Jesus? He is victorious, and faced with his victory those poor wretches have all taken flight. Be filled with hope: Jesus Christ is always victorious.

A Letter from Judith Lowe

Dear parishioners of Our Lady of Sorrows,

After prayerful consideration and conversations with Fr. Chip, I have accepted the position of Director of Music for St. Mary of the Assumption Parish in Milford, beginning June 15. My last Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows will be June 14. As the largest parish in the Worcester Diocese, St. Mary's offers opportunities that I am nearly certain I will not be offered again. While I had hoped to journey with you through through the heavy winds of your new reality as part of a collaborative, I believe that God is calling me to Milford. Thank you for the time with you. I look forward to maintaining friendships with those of you who have been so kind and truly helpful to me during my stay, albeit short, here at Our Lady of Sorrows. Music is truly a great gift from God.

"I feel the winds of God today, today my sail I lift Though heavy, oft, with drenching spray and torn with many a rift. If hope but light the water's crest, and Christ my bark will use, I'll seek the seas at His behest and brave another cruise."

—Judy

Collection

The average cost to run the parish is $11,371 per week and our expectation is that 69% ($7,845) will come from the weekly offertory. Last week, the parishioners contributed $6,306. This number includes the average of our electronic giving. $681 was collected for the second collection last weekend which was for Home Missions, Black & Native Americans & Military Archdiocese.

First Communion

This year we will continue our local custom of celebrating First Communion at various regularly scheduled parish Masses during the Easter Season. We will celebrate First Communion at the 4:30 pm Masses on Saturday, May 9 and 16, and at the 10:45 am Masses on Sunday, May 10 and 17.

Why celebrate First Communion during the Easter Season? Since First Communion is a Sacrament of Initiation, the Easter Season is an appropriate time to celebrate it as well as the other Sacraments of Initiation—Baptism and Confirmation. We celebrated Baptisms on April 26 and again on May 3 and Confirmation on May 15—all in the Easter Season.

Why celebrate First Communion at regularly scheduled parish Masses? Why not have "separate" and "special" Masses for First Communion? The key to the answer lies in our belief the Eucharist (First Communion) is a Sacrament of Initiation—initiation into the worshipping community of faith. Separate First Communion Masses and some of the customs surrounding them may give the impression that celebrating the Eucharist and receiving Communion is a once-in-a-lifetime event like a baptism or a wedding. The children are being initiated into the ongoing sacramental life of the parish. It is important for the parish community to be part of the Eucharistic celebration during which the children will share at the Eucharistic table for the first time.

First Communion is a significant moment both for the children and their families and the whole parish community. It's a time for the whole gathered assembly to welcome these children to the table of the Lord. We do so with great joy! It is also a time for us to become newly inspired and open to the Spirit as we witness our second graders move more deeply into their relationship with our God. May the community's active presence and participation at the Eucharistic celebrations during which the children will share for the first time at the Eucharistic table cause all of us to reflect on the gift of the Eucharist in our own lives and in the life of our parish community.

The Reverend Donald R. Delay Service Recognition Program

The Service Recognition Program was established to acknowledge and recognize the contributions made by high school parishioners to St. Mary Parish.

Any member of St. Mary Parish who will be graduated from high school this year may apply for a Service Recognition Award. Awards will be given to those who demonstrate substantial and continuous contributions to St. Mary Parish during their high school years. This contribution might be as an altar server, lector, religious education teacher, or regular contributor to other parish activities.

Those who wish to be considered for a Service Recognition Award should complete an application form. The form should be completed on the web site or downloaded and completed in the candidate's neatest printing. On the application form, the candidate will explain the contributions that he/she has made to the parish and/or other involvement and the benefits that he/she has gained through this experience. Service Recognition application forms are available at the parish office, in the church sacristy, and on the website stmarywalpole.com/service-recognition-program. The deadline for returning completed forms is June 8.

The Reverend Donald R. Delay Service Recognition Award Committee will review all applications for completeness, accuracy and eligibility. The names of award recipients will be announced in June and the awards will be presented at a Mass in August.
