DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

"I, then, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all."
~Eph 4:1 – 6

Sts. Cornelius & Cyprian has a history of 155 years while St. James has just celebrated it's 75th anniversary; together we have 230 years of lived faith. We thank God for all the bishops, priests, nuns and parishioners who have planted the Catholic faith in our area. We are blessed to be now part of history and merging our two parishes to become one new parish community under the name of The Catholic Community of Sts. James, Cornelius & Cyprian.

As St. Paul urged his people in Ephesus, I, your pastor, also urge you to live in a manner worthy of your baptism. Let us strive to preserve the unity of the spirit in our new community knowing that we are now one Body of Christ. We have one Lord, one faith, one baptism and one God who is Father of us all. Please pray for me as I pray for you during these challenging but exciting times.

Fr Kusi – Pastor.

The New Serenity Prayer

By: Fr. James Martin, SJ

God, grant me the serenity to accept the people I cannot change, which is pretty much everyone, since I'm clearly not you, God. At least not the last time I checked.

And while you're at it, God, please give me the courage to change what I need to change about myself, which is frankly a lot, since, once again, I'm not you, which means I'm not perfect.

It's better for me to focus on changing myself than to worry about changing other people, who, as you'll no doubt remember me saying, I can't change anyway.

Finally, give me the wisdom to just shut up whenever I think that I'm clearly smarter than everyone else in the room, that no one knows what they're talking about except me, or that I alone have all the answers.

Basically, God, grant me the wisdom to remember that I'm not you.

Amen
