Sts. James, Cornelius & Cyprian
August 19th

— TWENTIETH — SUNDAY
— IN ORDINARY TIME —

Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink."

FROM BISHOP BOYEA

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I am writing this to you due to the recent removal of Archbishop Theodore McCarrick from ministry. Once again, the sins of a cleric have hurt victims, scandalized the faithful, raised anger in many hearts, and brought ill-repute upon the Catholic Church. Archbishop McCarrick's abuse of minors, his homosexual activity and his abuse of seminarians and young priests are beyond the pale. In addition, some knew about this and did nothing to address his behavior. I am as shocked as you. So, first of all, I apologize for his behavior and the behavior of those who did nothing to stop him. It is incredibly wearying and demoralizing to hear yet again about these sexual sins and alleged crimes. Let us hold each other in prayer.

As you may know, each bishop is ultimately responsible to the Holy Father, who is the only one who can remove him. Still, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops will be discussing how we bishops might attempt to hold one another accountable, given this limitation. I can never give a guarantee that there will not be other clerics who violate their promise of celibacy and abuse their positions. We are all sinners. The Lord Jesus knew what the archbishop did just as he knows our sinful selves as well. Beyond what we can do as human beings to address the behavior of one another, we also commend ourselves and each other to the charity and justice of our God. Christ is our hope in all things. May God have mercy on us all.

~Bishop Earl Boyea, Diocese of Lansing

Be sure to register soon for the Made for Happiness Diocesan Assembly, which takes place in East Lansing on Saturday, September 22nd. The Assembly offers a full day of activities, including a four mile Eucharistic Procession, inspiring talks and music, family activities, and concluding with an all-diocesan Mass with Bishop Boyea and nearly all the clergy from the 77 parishes in our diocese. You can choose to participate in the full day of events or as much of it as you wish. Registration is FREE, but space is limited. Please register at www.MadeForHappiness.org.

STS C & C MINISTERS

Please have your unavailable dates for the September 2018 schedule to Bonnie by Monday, August 20th.

The Eucharistic sacrifice of the body and blood of Christ embraces in turn the mystery of our Lord's continuing passion in the members of his mystical body, the church in every age.

St. Vincent Catholic Charities is seeking MENTORS, TUTORS and MILEAGE CLUB VOLUNTEERS

For our Children's Home.

Be an Influence

MENTOR: A mentor is an adult role model who can provide positive and normalizing interactions, memories, support and so much more to children while they reside within the Children's Home. A potential mentor must be willing to commit to meeting with your mentee at least once a week, for at least an hour at a time, until the child is discharged from STVCC's care or one calendar year.

TUTOR: Do you have experience in tutoring middle or high school children? We are particularly interested in tutors who have a mastery in the math and sciences.

MILEAGE CLUB VOLUNTEER: Are you a runner/walker and want to join others in promoting healthy outdoor lifestyles in our children throughout the summer? Please join us!

To be involved in any of the above opportunities, please contact JOSH LOWN, Volunteer, Outreach and Training Coordinator, at lownj@stvcc.org or call 517-323-4374 ext. 1356.
