Palm Sunday

Like every Christian celebration, today's is one of peace. The palm branches, with their ancient symbolism, recall a scene of the book of Genesis: "After waiting seven more days, Noah again sent out the dove from the ark. In the evening, the dove came back to him and there was a new olive branch in its beak. So Noah realized that the waters were receding from, the earth." Today we remember that the alliance between God and his people is confirmed and established in Christ, for "he is our peace." In the liturgy of our holy Catholic Church — which so wonderfully unites and sums up the old in the new — we read today the joyful words which remind us of how Jesus was greeted at his birth in Bethlehem: "The sons of the Hebrews, raising olive branches, went out to meet the Lord, crying out, Glory in high heaven." As he moved off, St Luke tells us, "people spread their cloaks in the road, and now, as he was approaching the downward slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole group of disciples joyfully began to praise God at the top of their voices for all the miracles they had seen. They cried out: Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord, peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven." by St. José Maria Escrivá de Balaguer

It is time once again to fill out the CORI form. All volunteers, new or not, must fill this out. This is a very important requirement for ALL volunteers who work with or might work with children. Domingo de ramos

Como toda fiesta cristiana, ésta que celebramos es especialmente una fiesta de paz. Los ramos, con su antiguo simbolismo, evocan aquella escena del Génesis: esperó Noé otros siete días y, al cabo de ellos, soltó otra vez la paloma, que volvió a él a la tarde, trayendo en el pico una ramita verde de olivo. Conoció, por esto, Noé que las aguas no cubrían ya la tierra. Ahora recordamos que la alianza entre Dios y su pueblo es confirmada y establecida en Cristo, porque El es nuestra paz. En esa maravillosa unidad y recapitulación de lo viejo en lo nuevo, que caracteriza la liturgia de nuestra Santa Iglesia Católica, leemos en el día de hoy estas palabras de profunda alegría: los hijos de los hebreos, llevando ramos de olivo salieron al encuentro del Señor, clamando y diciendo: Gloria en las alturas. La aclamación a Jesucristo se enlaza en nuestra alma con la que saludó su nacimiento en Belén. Mientras Jesús pasaba, cuenta San Lucas, las gentes tendían sus vestidos por el camino. Y estando ya cercano a la bajada del monte de los Olivos, los discípulos en gran número, transportados de gozo, comenzaron a alabar a Dios en alta voz por todos los prodigios que habían visto: bendito sea el Rey que viene en nombre del Señor, paz en el cielo y gloria en las alturas. S. José María Escrivá de Balaguer

CORI

Es otra vez el tiempo de completar el CORI para todos los voluntarios, nuevos o no. Es un requisito importante para todos los voluntarios que tienen o pueden tener algún contacto con niños incluyendo a los maestros de CCD, catequistas, etc. Por favor, después de la Misa dominical, contacten a Diluvina quien se encarga de esta información.
