ST PATRICK: The shamrock and the Trinity

It is said that St. Patrick used the shamrock as a symbol to explain the Trinity to unbelievers, that is, how God is One God in Three Persons. Patrick would hold up a shamrock and challenge his hearers, "Is it one leaf or three?" "It is both one leaf and three," was their reply. "And so it is with God," he would conclude.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Of all the festivals on the liturgical calendar, this is the one that speaks most to us of pure, unfathomable mystery. We can only know something of God through what God has done for us and how God relates to us—these are the concrete traces of God among us. This solemnity reminds us that God does not exist in isolation but as a community of Persons in relationship to each other. The Trinity is a relational God who gives and loves. Do we choose to live an independent existence or a Trinitarian, communitarian, and self-giving way of living? The only way to living the kind of community the Trinity models for us is through love, the self-giving love that creates and sustains life.

ST. PATRICK: El Trébol y La Trinidad

Según la tradición, San Patricio utilizó el trébol como símbolo para explicar La Trinidad a los incrédulos, es decir, como Dios es Un Dios en Tres Personas. Él mostraría un trébol retando a los oyentes. «Es una hoja o son tres?» «Es a la vez una hoja y tres.» respondían. «Y así es con Dios.» concluiría.

San Vicente de Paul

De todos los festivales en el calendario litúrgico, este es el que nos habla más del puro e incomprensible misterio. Solo podemos saber algo de Dios a través de lo que Dios ha hecho por nosotros y como Dios se relaciona con nosotros - estas son las evidencias concretas de Dios entre nosotros. Esta solemnidad nos recuerda que Dios no existe en aislamiento sino como una comunidad de Personas en relación uno con otro. La Trinidad es un Dios relacional que da y ama. ¿Optamos por vivir una existencia independiente o en manera Trinitaria, comunitaria y en un modo de vivir dándose uno mismo? La única manera de vivir el tipo de comunidad que la Trinidad nos modela es por medio del amor, el que damos de sí mismos, que crea y sostiene vida.
