

Fourth Sunday in Lent - March 11, 2018

Gospel

While I am in the world,
I am the light of the world.”
When he had said this, he spat
on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which means Sent).
So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

4th SUNDAY OF LENT

FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 16:1b,6-7,10-13a

SECOND READING: Ephesians 5:8-14

GOSPEL: John 9:1-41

Reflection: What words or phrases jumped out at you during the Liturgy of the Word on Sunday? What connection do those words or phrases have to your day-to-day life? (Why do you think they jumped out at you?) What might God be trying to say to you through these words or phrases? What response should you make? What action should you take?

Alternative: How does the way I live my life demonstrate my belief in the Son of Man? How do I worship Him? (Remember from last week's Gospel that God wants people who will worship Him in Spirit and in truth.) What elements in our world try to silence the truth that Jesus wants us to see? How do I demonstrate the courage shown by the man born blind? Where is today's Pool of Siloam where I can wash the clay from my eyes?

4th Sunday of Lent Cycle A

The Gospel this Sunday is all about seeing the way God sees. It seems to me elementary that we might all want to do this but like the situation of the man born blind, in the story, there are plenty of people that work against our seeing God's truth.

I attended college after my military service and because of the responsibilities of my life I had to find work which would allow me the flexibility to work around my class schedule. I initially acquired a securities license and worked in sales for a mutual fund company. They taught me to be as nice as I could be to the people whom I was trying to sell but also taught me to confuse them so they would need my help making a decision. Of course the desired decision was to buy, buy, buy...

It was to my benefit if they bought. If I helped them see the ins-and-outs of mutual funds and investing, they would likely make an independent decision and might hold off or seek a better investment elsewhere. It was, seemingly, to my advantage that they didn't see.

The man born blind, in our Gospel story, is confronted with people, the Pharisees and Jews, who evidently thought it to their advantage that people didn't see the truth about Jesus. Look at how his neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar treat him, how the Pharisees treat him and how his own parents treat him. The man born blind exhibits tremendous courage as he holds on to the truth that he is beginning, more and more, to see.

As we follow the story we discover the man's insight growing throughout his struggle. Jesus is first "the man called Jesus". Later, he says that Jesus is "a prophet". As he continues in this struggle he affirms that Jesus must be from God and later, when Jesus invites him to believe in the Son of Man, he acknowledges him as Lord, makes an act of faith and worships him as God.

Jesus' question to the man born blind is appropriate for us also. Most of us began to see when we were journeying toward baptism or when our parents taught us the faith as youngsters. But, do we really "believe in the Son of Man?" How does the way I live my life demonstrate my belief?

How do I, as His disciple today, worship Him? Remember from last week's Gospel that God wants people who will worship Him in Spirit and in truth.

What do I need to change, in my life, to demonstrate the courage shown by the man born blind? What elements in our world try to silence the truth that Jesus wants us to see?

How do I, how can I, open myself to the insights Jesus might want me to see? Where is today's Pool of Siloam where I can wash the clay from my eyes?

SAINT JOSEPH

Monday, March 19, 2018

6:00 ~ 8:00 p.m.

“Saint Joseph ~ in his own words”...the father of Jesus, the husband of Mary, born in Bethlehem and raised in Nazareth. Saint Joseph...a carpenter, a builder, a provider and a teacher. Saint Joseph...a just man, a man of God, a man of dreams, a man who said yes to God.

Meet one man's vision of the person, the personality, the humor, the life of Saint Joseph; next to Mary, the one who knew Jesus the best. This is a bible-based theatrical presentation that many say is more thought-provoking than any they have ever seen.
Mark Price brings key figures of history to life. They will speak to you about their lives and their experiences with Jesus.

Sharing God's Gifts

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. — 1 Peter 4:10

Good and gracious God, We thank you for all we are, and all we have. Everything is a gift from your infinite generosity. We marvel how bountiful is your kindness. We celebrate the year of your enduring mercy. As we explore our responsibility to be good stewards, Fill us with the compassion of Jesus, your Son. Give us eyes to see the needs of those around us, In the faces of our neighbors near and far. Give us hearts that are moved by the pleas of those who cry out. On behalf of the children, the refugees, the sick, and the suffering. Give us hands that are eager to share what has been entrusted to us. For the homeless and those alone in their homes. Give us feet to venture wherever the Spirit leads. For the mission to bring your good news to all. As we resolve to be mindful of the needs of others, we pray that, You instill in us your generosity, your kindness, and your mercy. Free us from all attachments to the things of this world. Keep us focused in our mission of good stewardship. Give us the grace to generously support the Annual Catholic Appeal so that we may faithfully do the work of Your Church. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

CALL TO FAMILY, COMMUNITY AND PARTICIPATION

Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature—we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community—whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

ENCOUNTER ANDRISE

“Education is the foundation of everything,” says Andrise, who’s been a first-grade teacher at a small Catholic school for 11 years. It’s the same school she attended from first through sixth grade, in the community she calls home in northern Haiti. Andrise says the opportunities at Notre Dame set the course for her life. But a lot has changed since she was a student. New teaching techniques and resources are changing how students learn—and how teachers teach. “We use poems, dances, songs—all sorts of activities to help the students improve their literacy,” she says. And Catholic Relief Services—working with the Catholic Education Commission in Haiti—is leading the way. Every student receives a new workbook to practice their reading and writing. This is a big change from before, when students had to copy notes from the board. “Now, all the students are able to learn at the same time,” Andrise says. And she benefits too—from ongoing teacher training. Last year, the parish priest named her Teacher of the Year. The new techniques are working: Andrise’s classroom is a high-energy place, and the students love school—and her. “They call me ‘my mother,’ and I call them ‘my son, my daughter,” she says. “They’ve already promised that next year, when they’re in second grade, they’ll take time out of their recess to come and visit me.” For a teacher like Andrise, seeing the children grow not just as students, but as people, is the reason she goes to work each day.
