From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

I read news this morning of how Harvard University withdrew ten acceptances from potential students who posted “offensive, racially charged” memes. From their descriptions later in the article, they were much worse than offensive much and broader than racially charged. By-the-way, I had to look up the definition of meme, in real dictionaries and in the urban dictionary, but I still don’t understand the meaning of the word.

My point isn’t about memes, though, it’s about offensive speech. People invoke 1st Amendment rights in order to claim some kind of right to be offensive and that is part of what bothers me; many people seem to want to be offensive. 1st Amendment rights won’t help those whose acceptance was rescinded by Harvard. The school used its right to revoke admissions for someone who “engages or has engaged in behavior that brings into question their honesty, maturity or moral character.”

Our laws give us and protect many freedoms, that’s one of the beauties of our system. Free speech has helped us grow and mature as a society; I’m thinking of the civil rights movement as an example. Maybe the best example of problems associated with the lack of free speech comes from 1633 when Galileo Galilei was punished with lifetime house arrest for insisting that the sun does not revolve around the earth.

In the U.S. we do limit free speech when the speaker is intending to provoke an imminent and likely violation of the law, like inciting to riot. In this situation, the individual is held responsible for the effects of his speech. Freedom of speech is protected but we must be held liable for the results of our speech and actions. Those had their acceptance to Harvard revoked suffered from that. Their speech was protected but it still demonstrated that they are not the type of students Harvard wants.

It is common, now, to try to teach young people to be careful what they post on social media. We warn them that college admission personnel and corporate HR personnel check us out on social media. I guess it’s wise to teach such things to our youth but I wish we could successfully teach a more pure reason. Demeaning others is wrong. It’s not Christian. It’s not following our Lord’s command to love one another. It’s detestable. Yet, it seems to be more and more common and accepted in our society today.

I don’t know how best to combat the hatefulness that masquerades as humor and free speech but I know we must combat it. We must teach our children our Lord’s commandment of love. We must watch our own speech and avoid teaching them the words of hatred. We must name the evil for what it is and take away its power over us.

I applaud the three who stuck up for the two young ladies on the Portland train last week. I’m saddened by the loss of life and injuries, both the physical injury and the emotional injuries that must have been suffered. They were willing to step in and try to protect the young ladies from the evil the man was spouting. We don’t need to go that far but we do need to name evil for what it is even if it is protected by the 1st Amendment.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Most Holy Trinity

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." We are used to this profound idea, so used to it that we often glaze over the incredible reality: God the Father has a Son who became man and dwelt among us! Too often we blithely make the sign of the cross in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, without realizing what a radical theology we are announcing.

Only Christianity proclaims a triune God. Only Christianity professes that we have one God in three divine persons. Only Christianity declares that the very nature of God is to be relational and literally "personal." Why does this matter? Because we are made in God's image, as the opening chapters of Genesis tell us. We, therefore, are made in the image of this Trinitarian God who IS love. We are built to be like this God! Just as God the Father loves God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, we too are called to love one another. In fact, we are not fulfilling our nature and design when we don't. And just as God loved the world (that is, us!) so too we are called to love him in return.

We don't have to embrace this image in which we were made, of course. God gave us freedom so that our love can be real, but this means our choices really matter. We can decide not to reflect God's interpersonal love in the world. We can opt not to return the love that God pours out to each of us. But this can only lead to disappointment in the end. After all, God sent his Son so that "everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Ultimately, this means spending eternity in the Trinitarian embrace of love. So why not start now?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today's celebration of the Most Holy Trinity shows us how awesome and huge God really is! He is not a judgmental and aloof king reigning in heaven but a loving and compassionate God who is intimately involved with his children and all his creation. God as Father reveals the immensity of God's presence as seen in the wonder of creation: the stars and seas, the mountains and hills, and all the glory that surrounds us. Jesus reveals the compassionate and gentle face of God, a God of mercy who desires nothing more than for his children to seek and come to him. God the Holy Spirit reminds us that God is the very life force of our existence, without whom we would have no breath and the universe would have no life.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer:

The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in "The Didache," also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

SAINT LUKE APRIL MISSION

In April of this year in lieu of our regularly planned Emmaus program, our children from Pre—School through 5th grade had an opportunity to participate in a mission presented by Sr. Eva Rodriguez from the Mission Childhood Association from the San Diego Diocese.

Middle school and high school youth were on hand to assist with the younger disciples. Together they watched a slide show about the customs and culture of Ecuador, dressed in the regional attire from the country of Ecuador, sang songs and participated in making a World Mission Rosary.
