

The Nativity of St. John the Baptist — June 24, 2018

Gospel

He asked for a tablet and wrote, "John is his name," and all were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing God. Then fear came upon all their neighbors, and all these matters were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea. All who heard these things took them to heart, saying, "What, then, will this child be?" For surely the hand of the Lord was with him.

THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

FIRST READING: ISIAIH 49:1-6

SECOND READING: ACTS: 13:22-26

GOSPEL: Luke 1:57-66, 80

Reflection: What words or phrases caught your attentions as the Gospel was being proclaimed on Sunday? What connection do those words or phrases have to your day-to-day life? (Why do you think they caught your attention?) What might God be trying to say to you through these words or phrases? What response should you make? What action should you take?

Alternate: Think about/Reflect upon things you consider to be important accomplishments in your life. What signs are there that God may have chosen you, particularly, to do those things? What gifts or skills did He give you that you used to accomplish them? What do you think God wants of you know?

From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

The Diocese and Catholic Charities have been trying to help parishes who have families facing deportation for the past several months. I've only familiarized myself with the issues because I didn't think we would have that problem.

We don't have many families from immigrant groups who seem to be in that situation and most of our families are middle-class, stable and have been here for years.

Boy was I wrong. We do have a family facing deportation. Yes, they are middle-class, stable and have been here for years but all of a sudden, their status has changed and they are now facing deportation.

Roberto and Consuelo Dunoyer came here on a legal visa, with their 3 year-old and 11 month-old children, fleeing danger in Columbia. Mr. Dunoyer worked with the government in finance and was being pressured by a radicalist group to embezzle funds for them. Their application for asylum was denied but they were given permission to stay by a private bill enacted by Congressman Duncan Hunter, who felt their case was worthy of being approved.

Because of new immigration regulations, the bill that protected their family could not be renewed. Now they are doing all they can to find a way to stay and allow their children to continue to grow in the only culture they have really ever known. They have been productive members of our society since arriving and have trained their children to contribute to society. The one, in their family, whom I know best is their 17 year-old son who has been active in our youth group and a leader for our High School retreats.

The Dunoyer family, for me, has put human faces to the immigration/deportation situation in our country. It has finally come close. It is affecting our parish family. It also seems to me that rules and regulations are necessarily general but the application must be specific. We need to look at the specific situation of the Dunoyer family if we are going to apply these rules humanely.

The Dunoyers have asked for our help and suggested that we contact our senators and congressman on their behalf. I support them 100% and pray for them, and others in similar situations, daily. For them, I'm asking your prayers too. And, if you can see your way to contacting our senators and your representative, that might help too. An easy way to get phone numbers and addresses is to visit <https://www.govtrack.us/>.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration,

Fr. Ron

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE June 24, 2018 The Nativity of Saint John the Baptist

Tiny fingers and toes. A little yawn. A loud cry. An infant wrapped in swaddling clothes. "What will this child be?" It is a question every parent asks time and time again. As first steps are taken, as personalities emerge, as a child shows interest in reading or drawing or climbing, the question is on our lips. "What will this child be?" This question is asked as John the Baptist is born. Will he be a priest like his father? Does his strange, unexpected name signal a departure from that inheritance? Could Elizabeth and Zechariah ever have predicted what would be?

Under the tutelage of his priestly father, John "became strong in spirit." As an adult, John would retreat into the desert to preach repentance. He would attract a large following and eventually attract the attention of the rulers of the day. He would point out the adulterous ways of King Herod and would find himself in prison. Eventually, he would be beheaded. But today, he is a child, an infant newly born.

On this special feast, we're reminded of the great humility required of parents. The character formation, the discipline and encouragement, the violin lessons and soccer practices? every parental effort is subjected to the decisions of the child himself. Even children on a sure track by high school graduation transform under life's circumstances. Entrusting our children to God can be incredibly intimidating. "What will this child be," especially when that transformation lies outside of my control? John the Baptist's story might not have ended as his parents imagined. But he is celebrated as the greatest of the prophets, as the one who prepared the way for the Messiah. Here is the hope of all Christian parents -- that our children would be raised in such a way that when people meet them, they meet Jesus Christ.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

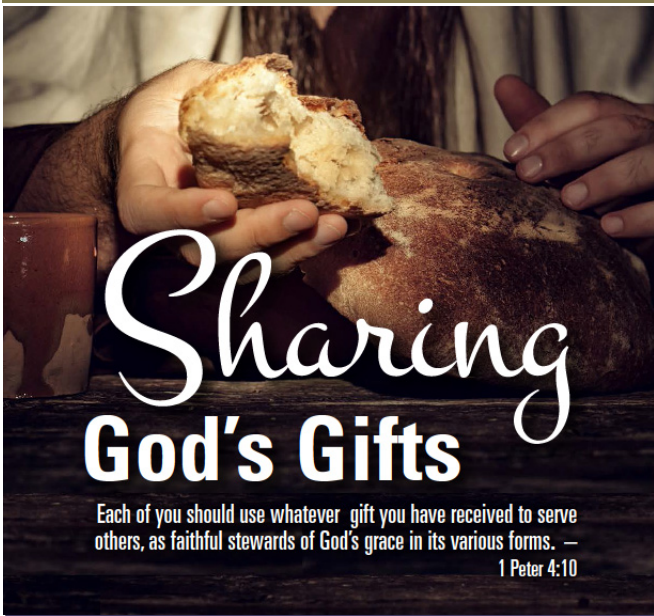

Question: June 24 celebrates the feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist. How was that date chosen and why?

Answer: The date set for John the Baptist's birth only came into existence once the date to celebrate Jesus' birth was set. Evidence shows that by the middle of the fourth century Christians were celebrating the birth of Jesus around December 25. No one at that time knew when Jesus was born, but the date seemed to be selected to counter the Roman festival to the sun god.

Once December 25 had been selected for the birth of Jesus, a number of other dates could be set, using the biblical evidence at hand. When the angel appeared to Mary and she conceived, her cousin, Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, was in her sixth month. If Jesus was born on December 25, then he had to be conceived nine months before, on March 25. If Elizabeth was then in her sixth month, then John the Baptist was due three months later on June 25.

Then why June 24? A rather convincing reason stems from John's witness in John's Gospel. There John the Baptist says that Jesus must increase and he, John, must decrease. The other Gospels also have John point to Jesus and not himself as the chosen one of God. In making John's birth a day less than Jesus' full nine months, the Christian community communicated this Gospel reality in its liturgical calendar. Thus the Christian community continued to highlight John's mission and ministry. Maybe we could strive toward that same mission in our own lives.

Sharing God's Gifts

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. — 1 Peter 4:10

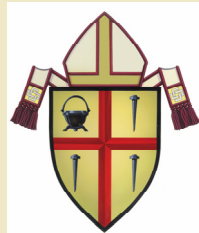

Good and gracious God, We thank you for all we are, and all we have. Everything is a gift from your infinite generosity. We marvel how bountiful is your kindness. We celebrate the year of your enduring mercy. As we explore our responsibility to be good stewards, Fill us with the compassion of Jesus, your Son. Give us eyes to see the needs of those around us, In the faces of our neighbors near and far. Give us hearts that are moved by the pleas of those who cry out. On behalf of the children, the refugees, the sick, and the suffering. Give us hands that are eager to share what has been entrusted to us. For the homeless and those alone in their homes. Give us feet to venture wherever the Spirit leads. For the mission to bring your good news to all. As we resolve to be mindful of the needs of others, we pray that, You instill in us your generosity, your kindness, and your mercy. Free us from all attachments to the things of this world. Keep us focused in our mission of good stewardship. Give us the grace to generously support the Annual Catholic Appeal so that we may faithfully do the work of Your Church. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen
