Gospel

And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

Mt 10:28

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: JEREMIAH 20:10-13

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:26-33

Reflection: Reflect upon, share about a time when you have experienced fear that held you back. How did that keep you from doing God's will? Did that what you feared happen? How were your fears relieved? What would have happened if you had put your trust in God? How can you learn to trust God more?

From the Pastor (reprint from last year)

Dear Parishioners,

I'm writing on Tuesday; the day I volunteer at Desayunador (the breakfast hall.) in Tijuana. The Gospel at Mass today was the one in which Jesus is reproaching the towns where his mighty deeds were done but they did not repent. I suggested to the volunteers that, if they looked people in the eye and really saw the person they would see Jesus' mighty deeds being done in our midst. I suggested that we miss our Lord's mighty deeds because humans have become so powerful, in this the twenty-first century, that we think we are responsible for everything that happens.

We had lots of young adult volunteers today, Orthodox Christians from all over the U.S. I wasn't needed to do my regular job where I interact with people at the tables. Rather I handed out paper towels in the hand washing line and interacted individually with all 1,000 people we fed. One of the things I noticed was that when I said Buenos días. ¿Como estás? (Good morning. How are you?), many people responded Bien. Gracias a Dios. (Well. Thanks be to God.)

One gentleman with whom I struck up a conversation, ended by saying "God is..." I finished it for him by saying "good" and expecting him to say "all the time". Instead he looked at me and said "God is love!" Of course we were saying the same thing, in a way, but I liked the way he said it. I interpreted it to mean that he is experiencing God's love in his life.

Remember, these are very poor people who don't get enough nourishment and therefor come to Desayunador on a regular basis. Many of them are homeless and live on the street. Yet they are able to experience, and are very aware of, God's love for them. That's what His mighty deeds are. Expressed in many ways, they are the experience of His love.

I think people who have so very little, who have little power in their own lives, can, more readily, recognize and claim the experience of God's love in their lives. We, on the other hand, have much personal power to which we easily attribute the good we experience. Maybe our personal power, itself, is a gift from God.

What that means to me is that I have to be intentional about thanking God for his action in my life, especially for the things He has given me that allow me to do the things I do well. It is not that "I" am so capable, it is that He has given me traits that I sometimes use well, hopefully to the glory of His name. If I develop the pattern of being thankful, I might even recognize his mighty deeds more often.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid." Can it really be true? Is our heavenly Father actually so aware of us? Does the Creator of the universe pay that much attention to ME? Jesus says yes. God knows us far more intimately than we even know ourselves. And so, we have nothing to fear.

Being Christian isn't guaranteed to be easy. More and more even in our own culture, following the faith is being criticized and discouraged in the public square. Privately, we may struggle with the demands of the commandments or the ability to believe when we face the inevitable trials that come our way. But passages like this one in today's Gospel are a source of tremendous hope and consolation. We are LOVED beyond measure. We enjoy the care and concern of God in every situation, big and small. Truly we have no need to worry or be anxious because God is in control.

For our part, of course, Jesus asks us to trust him and stay faithful. He asks us not to apologize for our faith, especially publicly. "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." When we live our faith with confidence, it's a way of accepting the power and providence of God. But when we try to hide our faith away because we're afraid of causing problems, we only damage our relationship with the One who can actually solve them.

At the end of the day, the only really serious problem we need to worry about is losing our soul--and that, to be sure, is up to us. As the great French novelist Léon Bloy wrote, "There is only one tragedy in the end: not to have been a saint."

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus tells us today, "Fear no one." All of us have fears. Some of us may fear the future, change, rejection, being out of control, ridiculed, losing a cherished relationship, failure, and even sickness and death. We have no control over much that we fear. Anxiety and worry become a futile waste of time and serve only to impact the quality of life. Faith, which brings a trust in God's promise that he is with us, allows us to face whatever comes with courage and acceptance. While very difficult to do, this is exactly what we are asked to do.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

If Jesus destroyed sin, why are sins still with us?

Answer:

We are the children of God, heirs of the Father's business, which is life. The struggle is between good and evil and the greatest weapon of evil is death. It is final, the end of hope and all possibility of change. Jesus must destroy death so that life, eternal life, might be possible. That is why Jesus dies: to take on sin's weapon and destroy it by his resurrection. It was not simply to satisfy God's sense of justice, but to meet sin on its own terms and defeat it. If sin triumphs in the death of Jesus, it is only for a moment. The final word will yet be spoken.

Since we are heirs and coworkers with God, ours is the struggle with the remnants of evil, its last desperate attempt to overcome good. Like Jesus, we are about the Father's business in our daily life, carrying the message of salvation to everyone. We are strengthened in our struggle and come to realize the great gift of life with which we are graced. It is our hope that one day we will rejoice with the Father in a job well done! .
