Gospel

And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Mt 13:3-9

Second Reading: Romans 8: 8:18-23

GOSPEL: Matthew 13: 1-23

Reflection: Reflect upon/Share about how the "seed" of faith was first sown in you? What things tried to block its growth in your life? How has your faith changed you, over the years? What has been the most important fruit of your faith, to you? What can you change, in your life, to help you hear the words of faith more deeply?

Alternate: Reflect upon/share about the "sowers" in your life who teach you about Jesus? Where do you hear things that go against what your "sowers" teach? How does our heart know which is the right voice to follow? What can you do to help yourself follow what your "sowers" are teaching you and not be swayed by others?

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I watched a movie the other night called "Dad". It's from 1989 and featured Ted Danson and Jack Lemmon. Jack Lemmon was the elderly father and Ted Danson the son who also had a son with whom he had little relationship. In fact, it seems that he hadn't seen his dad for a couple of years either.

In the movie, his mother has had a heart attack and was hospitalized which is why Ted ended up spending time with his dad. You'd never know that he hadn't seen his dad for such a long time because of the obvious love and caring he demonstrated. That is what touched me about the show; the character Ted played ended up extending his stay and taking care of his father in a very loving way.

His mother had been doing everything for the father and the father, consequently, had become incapable of taking care of himself. Ted's character re-taught him how to do many things including preparing him to get a driver's license again. That was one of the funny parts because he was treating his dad the way many parents treat their High School teens as they are preparing for a driving test.

It was obvious how much he loved his dad and wanted his dad to be free to do whatever he wanted. He showed love and respect and wanted his dad to have self-dignity. It made me think of my son and how much I know he loves and cares about me. Of course, he doesn't have to worry, yet, as much as the character Ted Danson played but his time is coming and I've already thought about what life would be like at that point.

The first time I noticed my son's care for me was when he was still in High School. We were at the home of one of his friends and it was obvious that he took it upon himself to make sure I was comfortable and fit in. I remember thinking then how great family is and how cool it is to have children.

My daughter also goes out of her way to make sure things are right for me. I've told some of you that I considered what it might be like living with her and her husband when I'm too old to live by myself. I decided that that wasn't going to work because I can get away with so much more than her husband can just because of my position as her father. It didn't seem like it would be fair to him.

I have one adult granddaughter and two grandchildren who are too young for me to imagine what they will be like when they are older. The other two will be 17 and 19 when I'm 80. I am kind of waiting for that age. I think they will be really cool as teenagers. They seem to like me a lot and I suspect they still will.

I love family and wish more of our youth would look forward to starting families; I'm afraid many of our young people are avoiding the commitment until they get more of what they want first. I wish we had optional celibacy in our Church. I think it would be nice for more priests to know the joy of having loving children.

I thank God for my children and grandchildren and for the many good families we have in our parish; we are truly blessed. I pray for those families who struggle, as we all do at times. I pray for our young people that they will experience the grace of heading good families and experiencing the love of their spouses and children.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

Gospel Meditation, Live the Liturgy & Why Do We Do That

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Under normal circumstances, Debbie and I like to send out individual thank you notes after receiving a gift or other kind act. However, the overwhelming response we received following the sudden and tragic loss of our dear daughter-in-law makes that task impossible. Debbie and I would like to sincerely thank you for all that you have done for us and our family in this difficult time. By all that you have done, you have shown in a most profound way what discipleship is all about. We have been lifted by your prayers, expressions of love, support and outreach. Our parish is truly special and that is because of all of you.

God Bless you all.
Deacon Jerry & Debbie Stenovec

GOSPEL MEDITATION: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." In the parable of the sower that Jesus tells in today's Gospel, the ideal is to be "the seed sown on rich soil" that yields an abundant harvest. As Jesus explains, this means we should strive to be "the one who hears the word and understands it."

So how do we place ourselves in this category? How do we assure that we will hear God's voice (i.e., the word) and actually understand what he's saying to us? The answer comes in the parable itself. Jesus explains what we need to avoid in order to make sure our seed bears fruit. First, we must beware of "the evil one" who comes and steals away the seed of God's word. Faithfully praying the Lord's Prayer, with its request to "deliver us from evil," is a good starting point here. Placing ourselves under God's protection every day is like taking up a shield against the forces that would seek to derail us.

Secondly, we must be committed enough to God's word that "tribulation or persecution" do not uproot us or make our faith wither and die. Here, too, sincerely praying the petition in the Lord's Prayer--"Thy will be done"--can prepare us to accept whatever comes our way without waffling or wavering.

Finally, we must be careful that "worldly anxiety and the lure of riches" do not "choke" us. Again, we turn to the Lord's Prayer and find an antidote built in: "Give us this day our daily bread." We pray not for a new car or a winning lottery ticket, but for our basic needs. So let us embrace the prayer Jesus gave us, indeed the words he himself gave us to say, as we seek to truly hear and understand God's word.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are reminded today that the seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. What kind of soil do we have? God's word needs to take root in our lives so that we can remain faithful not only when life is easy but when it gets challenging and difficult. Anxiety, worldly cares and concerns, personal challenges, experiences of loss and death, and even fear and disappointment can prevent us from trusting God's promise. We can even find ourselves doubting God's fidelity and lose touch with his presence. Our soil can easily become rocky, hard, and unyielding. Open your eyes and ears today and let all that is around you lead you to God's presence. Then, do all in your power to cultivate and nurture a life that is eager to receive him and fertile for growing the seeds of God's kingdom.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. Who was she and is it true that she was a prostitute who followed Jesus around in his ministry?

Answer: Recent biblical scholarship has been trying for a long time to correct Mary Magdalene's misconstrued reputation as a prostitute. Biblical information reveals her as one of the most important disciples of Jesus, following and financially supporting him during his ministry. She is also a faithful witness both to the Crucifixion and the first to see the risen Jesus.

Her reputation as a prostitute arose from the misunderstandings of certain texts in Luke. Luke 8:2 reports Mary as being a follower of Jesus "from whom seven demons had gone out." This passage follows Luke's story of the sinful woman, a prostitute, who bathed Jesus' feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. Since that woman is not named, there came to be an association of that woman with Mary Magdalene, "from whom seven demons had gone out." Thus Mary became known as a prostitute. The readings and prayers for her feast day make no mention of her reputation as a sinner. Rather, they emphasize and highlight her role as the first witness to the risen Lord, and the first one commissioned by Jesus to tell of the good news to the disciples. Let us continue to be Mary Magdalene to the world.
