The Church of Saint Luke

A Roman Catholic Community of Disciples

May 24, 2015
Pentecost Sunday

*They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues
—Acts 2:1-11*

FIRST READING: Acts 2:1-11

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

GOSPEL: John 20:19-23

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit."
Jn 20:21-22

Reflection:

Reflect upon/Share about the period in your life which seems to have had the most "purpose"? What made that period of your life so meaningful? What seems to be the purpose of your life right now? How might this be connected to the gift of God's Spirit?

Alternative:

What do you spend most of your time and energy doing? Would you say that this is the purpose of your life right now? Is it what others want you to spend your time on? How do you think this might fit into God's plan for you?

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Making disciples is not a numbers game. It's not about how many people we have in the pews but about whether people are disciples or not. It is not good enough to claim you are a disciple. You have to actually be one. That's what Luke 13:27 is all about.

So what does it take to be a disciple. It requires a willingness to learn and a willingness to learn from the Lord through the Spirit. And, a disciple's learning is not academic learning although academic learning can help. A disciple is learning a way of life, a way of being in the world. A disciple is learning the truth about human life. That is why Jesus said he would send the Holy Spirit who would lead us to all truth.

Being a disciple requires openness. If a person already knows all truth and believes the words they use capture the totality of the truth, they can't be disciples because they can't be learners; people who already know everything have nothing to learn.

The "Way" disciples learn is the way of love and it is the way of love Jesus teaches. The way of love Jesus teaches is not just loving family and friends, those easy to love, but includes loving our enemies and everyone who is difficult to love. The way the Lord teaches is a very demanding way but it promises to bring us peace and the fullness of life.

Disciples are humble. Knowing their own sinfulness, a disciple does not judge others. Being prophetic, they judge actions but not the individual performing the action. This is part of the Law of Love a disciple tries to live.

It's not easy being a disciple but that is what we are called to be and that is what we are called to make of our children. "Go and make disciple of all people. Teaching them everything that I have commanded you." Mt. 28:19 It's best to start with ourselves.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

GLAD TIDINGS

Pentecost marks the end of the Easter season. This is the one feast of the Church's year when we focus on the third person of the Trinity, God the Holy Spirit. This is a good day to recall what Jesus said about himself, quoting the prophet Isaiah (61:1):

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me,
because the LORD has anointed me;
He has sent me to bring glad tidings to the lowly,
to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
and release to the prisoners,
To announce a year of favor from the LORD
and a day of vindication by our God.

The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus at his baptism. This same Spirit, who also came upon the disciples at Pentecost, the birthday of the church, is the Spirit who hovered over the waters of our baptism, as we were anointed with the holy oil of salvation. The Spirit came upon us with renewed strength in confirmation, as we were anointed as followers of Christ. It is the Holy Spirit who calls us anew to the challenges of each day, inspiring and strengthening us to live as disciples and friends of Jesus. That does not mean the path is made easy, or that we will always be understood, accepted, and successful. It does mean that if we trust the Spirit and its promptings deep within us, we will always speak and act with faith and truth. It is not up to us to worry about whether people receive what we offer. Our words or deeds may be just one small seed sown in someone's soul; our job is to sow it and to entrust to the Holy Spirit the nurturing and nourishing of that seed. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon us, so share the glad tidings!

A SIGNIFICANT DAY

"And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were" (Acts 2:2). The Holy Spirit's arrival on that first Pentecost was signaled by a rush of wind. We all know what it's like when our windows are open just as a summer storm rises up. Curtains fly, papers become airborne, house plants shudder, dust is scattered. A rush of wind disrupts the orderliness of our home. The coming of the Holy Spirit, as celebrated each year at Pentecost, can also disrupt ways that have become comfortable and orderly. The Church always needs Pentecost. We need the breath of God's Spirit to blow away any complacency or malaise that has settled into our faith. Jesus breathes on his disciples and they receive the Holy Spirit. With that reception comes the power to share the Good News of salvation. Today, this is no less true for us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Marriage is ideally a parish event today, but in the first three centuries of the church's history, it was a household celebration guided by civil law and pagan customs. Changes happened quickly after the Peace of Constantine in 312, and the fresh air after long persecution brought some creativity. The speech that the father of the groom's family gave before dinner or the veiling or crowning of the bride (or even the spouse's arrival at the honeymoon suite) attracted a prayer of blessing.

With amazing rapidity, worship was propelled out of the intimate setting of house churches to large public gathering spaces, and some parts of the marriage ceremony began to migrate with the growing community to the new spaces. In Rome, the veiling of the bride with the customary daily headgear of a married woman became the central liturgical act, accompanied by a biblical prayer for her integrity and fruitfulness. There were no vows as such (just as there are no vows to this day in the Orthodox marriage rite). In the liturgy, after hearing John's Gospel account of the wedding at Cana, the bride was veiled and blessed, and the priest gave the kiss of peace to the husband, who then gave it to his bride. The liturgy of Rome traveled far, and everywhere it went, marriage became a church celebration.—Rev. James Field, Copyright

OPEN LETTER OF APOLOGY

To the family who was inappropriately questioned in our parking lot.

I was appalled to hear that, in our parking lot, you were asked what you were doing here. If I could identify the person who spoke to you, I would hope to hear that it was a misunderstanding and that the person was trying to help you. But, from what I have been told it sounds like the implication was that you shouldn't have been here.

We are a Christian community, as you know since you were here for a baptism. And, I am thankful that you realize, as you have stated, that what happened is not representative of our community. We are supposed to make the Gospel active in our day-to-day lives and bring God's love to all whom we encounter. I'm truly sorry that you did not feel His love, in that incident, and as the pastor can only accept the blame for our failure.

I agree with the person who explained the incident to me that it may have happened because you are black. The thought of that gives me great sadness but it very well may be true. Prejudice seems to be so common in the human psyche. Sometimes people aren't aware of their prejudices and sometimes they simply refuse to acknowledge it for what it is. I'm sorry that you have suffered others' prejudices.

Finally, I pray that God will grace you with special blessings because of what you have suffered and may He protect you from similar incidents in the future.

In His service,

Rev. Ronald E. Cochran
Pastor
