

Welcome to

The Church of Saint Luke

A Roman Catholic Community of Disciples

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 26:4-10

SECOND READING: Romans 10:8-13

GOSPEL: Luke 4:1-13

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.

He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry.

Reflection: Reflect upon/share about a time when you were tempted. What, in the desert of your life, opened you to that temptation? What can you do to help yourself resist such temptations? What can you do this Lent to help yourself be prepared before temptation comes?

Alternative: What kinds of things do you do, or what can you do, to help yourself be physically strong? What do you do, or can you do, to help yourself be spiritually strong? What one thing can you do this Lent to help yourself be spiritually stronger?

The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. — Romans 10:8

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

FROM: THE PASTOR

(PREVIOUS ARTICLE FROM: 3/22/15)

Dear Parishioners,

Last week I talked about why we should participate at Sunday Mass from the standpoint of duty. But aside from fulfilling the requirements of our duty as Christians, we should get something out of the Mass over and above the good feeling we have from fulfilling our duty. It's the benefit we get from our encounter with the Lord within the Mass, and it's called grace. This is one of the things which attracts those who have experienced it. It shouldn't be separated from the fulfillment of our duty and fulfilling our duty shouldn't be separated from the benefits of this encounter. I think this is what Jesus meant when he told the apostles that he had food they didn't know about; that he was nourished by doing the will of his father.

The story of the Woman at the Well told us the benefit which she got from her encounter with the Lord. She no longer needed her water jar to look for fulfilling her thirst from things outside of Him, from the quest for money, power, pleasure or honor or wherever else we are looking. Her encounter with the Lord fulfilled all her thirsts. She needed look no further.

But how do we encounter the Lord in the Mass. We know that He is truly present in the minister of the sacrament, in the community gathered, in the Word proclaimed and in the Blessed Sacrament. We can experience Him in each of these presences but how do we open ourselves to that experience.

It might be easiest to start with experiencing the presence of the Lord in His Word proclaimed. For me, I sit back and allow the words to wash over me as the readings are proclaimed. I try not to engage my mind in thinking about the reading as it is proclaimed but something always jumps out at me and it is always new. That's one of the beauties of Scripture for me. It is like a great orchestral movement or classic work of art. Even though the creator is the same the hearer or viewer experiences it within the context of their own life experience, personally.

When this happens, it leads me to reflecting on the word, phrase or idea and begins a journey toward deeper relationship with the Lord. Sometimes it leads me to understanding or insight concerning something with which I've been struggling. Sometimes it nourishes and strengthens me in an area where I need strength. It sometimes leads me to compassion for someone or a social group for whom I need compassion. It sometimes leads me to making a change in my thoughts or actions to be more perfectly what God created me to be. It always helps me grow as a human being.

Another way we can encounter the Lord at Mass is through His Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. I think the first requirement for experiencing the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is to believe in His Real Presence or want to believe in it. Secondly, I think it's important to understand that it is a two-way encounter. It is personal and intimate even though it happens in the midst of the community. Thirdly, I think it is important to understand, like the ancients, that spiritual realities are real, in and of themselves, and precede physical realities. Physical realities point to spiritual realities. Without spiritual realities, physical realities wouldn't exist.

When you experience the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, it is a life-giving experience which makes the unreality of all physical existence recede into the background. It puts human life in proper perspective and makes it doable. And, it is not an intellectual understanding but an experiential understanding. It's an experience of being with the Lord which assures me that He is always with me even during the week when I am deeply embroiled in the physical realities of life.

And, we can experience the Lord through His Real Presence in the gathered community. I think this places a lot of responsibility on each of us to become community at Mass. When we process forward to say amen and receive the Body of Christ we are saying yes to becoming the Body of Christ as community. Guess what; we can't become the Body of Christ if we have not begun the movement toward communion long before that!

That's why the Church believes in the importance of full, active, conscious participation and I think we do some of that pretty well at St. Luke. I don't know about you but oftentimes I can feel us at prayer during Mass. We are the Body of Christ offering sacrifice to the Father and, when I feel us as a community at prayer, I feel the presence of the Lord in us. If you have trouble feeling that, try entering more deeply into the Mass through full, active, conscious participation.

It's important for us to participate at Mass weekly because that is where we encounter the Lord and it is through those encounters that we grow as disciples through the mechanism which He set up. It is through those encounters that we are nourished by our relationship with Him and from which we are impelled to service for the Kingdom. How can we claim to be His disciples if we absent ourselves from the Mass.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Israelites show their faith by offering the LORD first fruits of the products of their new land (Deuteronomy 26:4-10).

Psalm — Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble (Psalm 91).

Second Reading — All who express faith in the risen Christ and confess that he is Lord will be saved (Romans 10:8-13).

Gospel — Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and was tempted (Luke 4:1-13).

JESUS AND THE DEVIL

The devil tempted Jesus by quoting scripture, as today's Gospel reminds us. Try a self-serving miracle. Try selling out. Try dazzling the audience; people are gullible, after all. Try all these easy ways. The tempter tries to urge Jesus onto the slippery slope, attempts the old soft-soap, the snake-oil solutions that are always readily at hand. The devil knows better, but is powerless to do better, much less be better. The devil is evil personified, who senses in Jesus the stronger, truly attractive presence of holiness.

Evil is exposed and engaged, we are reminded in this Sunday's Gospel. Evil knows the jig is up. The undoing of lies begins with Jesus, who takes up the work of soul-healing and world-healing. This Lent, the Church invites us to enter into this renewing, re-creative work and be made whole again. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today Lent begins. Ash Wednesday initiates the forty days of the Lenten fast, but since Sundays are not tallied in the days of fasting, today is the solemn opening of the forty days of Lent. The Church has work to do today, principally the calling forward of those chosen (the proper word is elected) for the Easter sacraments. Some of those who have been catechumens may now make a transition to a new way of life as the "elect." For them, this Lent will be a time of "purification" and "enlightenment." For us who accompany them, it is a time of helping them discern God's call and prepare for new life.

This year, while the readings from the third year of the Lectionary cycle are usually read, they are set aside on certain Sundays for the benefit of the elect. We turn then to the readings from Year A, and we give those who journey to the font of baptism three extraordinary companions. In the Gospels for those days, we meet the woman of Samaria and the man born blind, and we come to the tomb of Lazarus three days after his death. Many bishops celebrate the Rite of Election on or near today, affirming God's choice for these new faithful, and also offering them the solidarity of many companions. In 2013, over 38,000 adults entered the baptismal waters in the United States, a remarkable testimony to the vigor of our tradition of receiving and nurturing adult faith. —Rev. Option for the Poor: Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Option for the Poor, Jesus tells us to care for those who are most in need. He reminds us of our Christian duty to give a voice to those who are unheard and to help those who are most vulnerable.
