A Roman Catholic Community of Disciples

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 19, 2016

IF YOU WISH TO FOLLOW
ME

DENY YOURSELF
AND TAKE UP
YOUR CROSS

There is neither Jew nor Greek,
there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

— Galatians 3:28

FIRST READING: Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1

SECOND READING: Galatians 3:26-29

GOSPEL: Luke 9:18-24

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

Jesus said to all: "Whoever wishes to be my follower must deny his very self, take up his cross each day, and follow in my steps. Whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will save it." Lk 9, 23-24

Reflection: Think about/Share about a time when you denied yourself (gave up) something? Did you give it up for yourself or for someone else? How did you and/or they benefit from your giving it up? How can you make self-denial a practice in your life?

Alternative Reflection: When have you let someone else have their way? What did you have to give up to let them have their way? Did it make them happy that you let them have their way? How did it make you feel to do it?

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I watched a movie last night entitled "The Letters". I highly recommend it. It is about the life of Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Movies like this are always inspiring to me and make me feel like I'm not doing enough to serve the Lord. Actually, I think we are probably all doing what we can and the difference is that we are just called to different things; for example, many, many parents are every bit as devoted as Mother Teresa was; it's just that we don't always see that as a calling from God... but it is!

She knew her calling from the age of twelve although it took her a while to finally get there. She started as a cloistered nun but knew that God wanted her to work with the poorest of the poor. After twelve to fifteen years, I think, as a cloistered nun she finally moved out of the cloister and served them directly. She had obstacles to overcome in accomplishing her goal, as we always do; I think that is the devil at work.

One of the themes that was emphasized in the movie was that she felt abandoned by God. Every time that came up I was struck with the connection between her feeling of abandonment and the feelings that the poor with whom she worked. They must have felt abandoned by society if not also abandoned by God. I thought how perfect it was for her to be helping them. What compassion she must have had because of their similar feelings.

I've heard others say that her life must have been a sham because she presented herself as a person of faith but now it comes out that she didn't feel God's presence. I think her continuing being a person of faith, in spite of her lack of feeling God's presence is a sign of how holy her life on earth was. In the midst of emptiness, she continued to be faithful and be the presence of God's love to so many. That shows tremendous strength if you ask me. It reminds me of the Hebrew Scripture portrayal of Israel's suffering and feeling that God had abandoned them.

This movie was about an extraordinary person... or maybe an ordinary person in extraordinary circumstances. Many of us deal with similar but very different things. Again, I think of parents. Parents may at times suffer greatly and feel that the deck is stacked against them. Yet they have to hang in there, being faithful to their commitments and responsibilities, to what God has called them to do. Parents oftentimes feel the pain of the suffering of their spouse and their children. They have to be there to comfort and support them so they can go on. They nurse them when they are sick or injured, they worry about them when they are away, they pray that God will be there for them.

Parents make the same kind of commitment and at times feel unappreciated and all alone in their work. Yet parents are faithful to those to whom they have committed. It is a holy work that they do. I wish we had saints who were canonized because of that. We need them as examples, too.

In His service,

Fr. Ron

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized “have clothed yourselves with Christ” (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church’s baptism ritual when we sing, “You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized.” This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today’s Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me” (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It’s almost midsummer day! One of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar occurs this week. There are only three “nativity” feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist on June 24. Friday’s date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child’s advent, but of Elizabeth’s child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, kindling “St. John’s Fires” in the long summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist’s own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach this week and plunge in to recall your baptism? It’s a tradition! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

ADs

We are at a crossroads here at St. Luke. Due to increased expenses and the death or moving away of major contributors, we are showing a deficit in our proposed 2016-2017 budget in excess of $40,000. We cannot begin a new fiscal year with this kind of deficit.

We are asking that every family, new and old, complete the Commitment Card below and return it by June 19th.

As you determine prayerfully to what extent your family should be supporting the mission of the Church, I recommend you use the biblical concept of tithing as your guide. Whatever percentage of your income you decide to give, remember:

1. Give from the first fruits of the gifts God has given you, off the top before other decisions are made. Consider using one of our online Automatic Deduction/Credit program to insure it always come off the top.
2. Give as an act of thanksgiving to God for His graciousness to you. Let the amount you contribute be a symbol of the level of your thankfulness.
3. Give as your contribution to the support of what is necessary for the continued existence of the Church, its mission of helping us grow in holiness as a community of disciples and its mission of serving the needy. Show by the amount you contribute that you really care about the mission for which Christ established the Church.

Thank you for being a part of this phenomenal community of disciples and helping us be who we are.
