

Welcome to

The Church of Saint Luke

A Roman Catholic Community of Disciples

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 10, 2016

Christ Jesus . . . is the head of the body, the church. —
Colossians 1:15, 18

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 30:10-14
SECOND READING: Colossians 1:15-20
GOSPEL: Luke 10:25-37

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn and cared for him.

The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Lk 10:33-35

Reflection: Reflect upon/Share about a time when you have been in a situation in which you had the opportunity to help someone displeasing to you or to society? What did you do? How did you feel afterward? Who are the Samaritans of our culture? How can you help them?

Alternative: Who do you and your friends dislike? Why do you dislike them? What would happen if you did something nice for one of them? How could you be more of a "neighbor" to them?

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is a joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalms — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

GO AND DO LIKEWISE

Miss Collins, the dean of students at Olympic High School, was past the point of scolding Matt, though she liked him very much. "Four detentions in two weeks are too many."

Still Matt wouldn't tell. It was only after Miss Collins went on a morning neighborhood patrol that she found out the real reason for Matt's tardiness. Thump, thump, thump, came the wheelchair down the stairs. It was Matt, steadying Shawnetta as he helped lower her down the stairs and then push her to the corner bus stop.

"She's a girl in my parish youth group," Matt explained to Miss Collins.

There are many ways to describe Matt's actions—a random act of kindness, making a difference one person at a time. Jesus would understand. When the lawyer correctly identified the good Samaritan as the one who had treated the injured man with compassion, Jesus said simply, "Go and do likewise" (Luke 10:37).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The first "presbyters" were advisers to the bishops rather than what we would call "priests," yet by the year 1000 our present-day understanding of the ordained priesthood is clearly in place. The Germanic influence was strong in those days, reflected in a series of questions posed to the candidate about his intentions.

The priest's role in the celebration of Mass had by then come to the fore, as the ritual notes that Mass vestments must be worn, the hands of the priest must be anointed with chrism, and a chalice with wine and water and a paten with a host must be given. Up to then, the ordination rite had stressed the presbyter as a collaborator with the bishop and a member of the order of presbyters. Then, in a not-so-subtle shift, the presbyter came to be seen as a "priest" designated to celebrate the Mass and, as the prayer suggests, to touch the chalice. By these days, remember, the cup had long vanished from Communion for the laity. A thousand years ago, today's patterns were already in place. The priest no longer saw himself as a member of a council of elders, a presbytery, and in some dioceses he had little influence over the bishop. Instead, he was either a pastor, with relationship to the eucharistic community in the parish, or he was a priest monk, offering Mass for the salvation of the departed or the intentions of the living. —Rev. ADs

We are at a crossroads here at St. Luke. Due to increased expenses and the death or moving away of major contributors, we are showing a deficit in our proposed 2016-2017 budget in excess of $40,000. We cannot begin a new fiscal year with this kind of deficit.

We are asking that every family, new and old, complete the Commitment Card below and return it .

As you determine prayerfully to what extent your family should be supporting the mission of the Church, I recommend you use the biblical concept of tithing as your guide. Whatever percentage of your income you decide to give, remember:

1. Give from the first fruits of the gifts God has given you, off the top before other decisions are made. Consider using one of our online Automatic Deduction/Credit program to insure it always come off the top.
2. Give as an act of thanksgiving to God for His graciousness to you. Let the amount you contribute be a symbol of the level of your thankfulness.
3. Give as your contribution to the support of what is necessary for the continued existence of the Church, its mission of helping us grow in holiness as a community of disciples and its mission of serving the needy. Show by the amount you contribute that you really care about the mission for which Christ established the Church.

Thank you for being a part of this phenomenal community of disciples and helping us be who we are.
