Bulletin Bites

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son.”

Throughout history there have been reports of people who have sacrificed their life to save a relative or comrade at arms. But God sent his only begotten Son. Imagine a parent sending a child to certain death to save others. How would we react to such a sacrifice by both parent and child? Gratitude? How would we express such gratitude? Would we realize that every day of the rest of our life; everything we have to enjoy in life; the time we have with our loved ones; everything we can accomplish with our talents, abilities and gifts we owe to the child of the parent who saved our life? Would we feel an obligation to share all that we have and all that we do with others? Such was the unconditional love of God for us. How should we react and respond to such love? Lent is a good time for us to contemplate God's great love for us. How have we responded; how are we responding; how can we respond in the future. GRATITUDE!!!

“The Light is on for you”

Confessions will be heard at St. John Church on Wednesday, March 25th after the 6 pm mass and Novena and will be heard until 8 pm.
