Bulletin Bites

“Peace be with you!”

Despite all that Jesus had taught his disciples, all that he had done in their presence, all that he had endured, his death and resurrection, they were hiding behind locked doors. They had not lost faith in Jesus, but they were not sure what to believe. When Jesus appeared to his disciples after his Resurrection, he greeted them with his wish for them: “Peace be with you!” And that is what Jesus wants for us. God, in his infinite mercy, reaches out to us through the Sacrament of Reconciliation so we can know true Peace. In the early church the forgiveness of sins occurred in the context of a community of followers of Jesus Christ. The story of Ananias and his wife is such an event. Today the Sacrament of Reconciliation is available to us in a private encounter with Jesus through a priest who acts in persona Christi. It is an opportunity for us to experience the Divine Mercy of God for us when we fail to be all that He created us to be. When the priest speaks the words of absolution, Jesus is saying to us “Peace be with you.”
