“I am the vine and you are the branches”

The disciples were well acquainted with vines and their branches. They were cultivated in the fields, grew on the walls of great buildings and planted in the gardens of small homes where they spread across trellises and provided shade and food. Anyone who has planted a vine, or encountered one in a place where it is unwanted, knows that the branches that grow far and wide and attach themselves to anything and anything in their path. A good and useful vine is nurtured and pruned. Its branches produce much fruit and vegetables. But branches, no matter how well cared for, cannot survive if cut off from the vine. They wither and die. The disciples understood the challenge Jesus presented them with the image of the vine and its branches. There were to stay attached to their faith in Jesus and go out into the world and provide spiritual food and comfort to all they encountered. Jesus is still the vine, and we now are the branches. What are we doing to stay attached to Jesus and go far and wide to do good in his name?

They will speak briefly to us about the Christian people in the Holy Land. They also will be offering some beautiful olive wood carvings which are all handmade by the Catholic Community there. This is a Church mission to maintain the existence of the Catholic people in the Holy Land. Catholics used to be the majority there but the percentage has now dropped to less than 1.5%.
