DEATH: Our deepest sympathy to the family of Valeta Siebeneck who passed away on October 26, 2015. May she receive her eternal reward in heaven.

All Saints Day... On this day set aside to remember all the saints of the Lord, we recall that we who live on this earth today are but one part of a church that extends back through the centuries and forward to the end of our time. Just as many of our churches have images of saints surrounding them, we come to know that at the Liturgy we celebrate, we are surrounded by the communion of saints whose lives are a shining example of encouragement for us. This past Thursday our church was filled with the lives of many saints as our third graders paraded in as their favorite saint and gave an explanation of who they were and something important about that saint. "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."
 -Father Jerry

All Souls' Day... With great compassion God has drawn us to remember all the baptized who have died in the hope of eternal life. We have been blessed by the presence of some of them in our lives, and our loving God continues to comfort us in our grief. It is our hope today that our loved ones, and all the faithful departed, will have an eternal reward for their faithfulness. We pray that they may come to rest in peace from their labors and sufferings in their eternal reward. God gives consoling words of encouragement and hope in life. May one's remaining doubts be dispersed by the faith of those who surround us here. Jesus has said "I am the resurrection and the life. All who believe and follow me will live." Let us take consolation from those words, and hope for ourselves as well as for all the faithful departed. As we hear from the Book of Wisdom, "No torment shall touch the souls of the just." May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in God's peace.
 -Father Jerry
