~ ~ ADORATION CHAPEL ~ ~

Msgr. Ernie has directed the IHM staff to change the seating arrangement in the Chapel from time to time to alleviate excess wear on the carpet. Recently, the day after a new arrangement was done, someone took the liberty to rearrange it. We ask that no one rearrange the furniture. The Chapel is meant to be used by all the faithful, but no one has the right to change things without permission from Msgr. Ernie and Father Miller.

Some of the kneelers in the Adoration Chapel were showing excessive wear from those who have been resting their shoe heels on them. We have had the bad kneelers reupholstered, and ask you ~ please do not put your heels on the kneeling portion to avoid future damage. Thank You.

Food and drink items have been consistently found in the Adoration Chapel. The Adoration Chapel is not a proper place to eat and drink; it is a sacred place to worship and adore the Real Presence of Jesus, our Lord. Please do not bring food or drinks into the Adoration Chapel. Thank you for your cooperation.

One of the IHM parishioners recently commented on seeing many new faces in the congregation. "I had an inspiration about the need for new faces and new energy in some of the organizations that are part of our Catholic community."

You can offer your talents in our Catholic community, by volunteering with SPEC (Special Persons Encounter Christ) This activity meets at St. Patrick's social hall on alternate Thursday evenings during the school year and provides worship opportunity, lessons in Catholic teachings, and fellowship for mentally handicapped people from the group homes. It is a fun and gratifying activity. Needed particularly are people willing to work one-on-one with the participants; we need musicians, kitchen help, teachers... Some of the current volunteers have been providing leadership for this activity for over thirty years.

If you want to participate in something and need information on how to get involved, please call Dave or Lisa Lindstrom at 342-7214.
