Dear Friends,

Several weeks ago I went on a retreat with the priests in the Diocese and found it very informative and restful. The presenter was from the Norbertine community and his subject was, "How to overcome the Hopeless feeling we deal with in our live".

Basically, the way to get through a feeling of Hopelessness we must do something, anything that gets you moving. Spend time with friends and organize get-togethers with people you may have lost contact. Spend time with someone who enjoys your company. Spend time in prayer sharing your dreams with the Lord and with your close friends. Volunteer to help someone or others who have needs.

One of the most important things to remember is that the feeling of Hopelessness is an opportunity to do something different and is meant to force us outside our comfort zone. Begin your day with a prayer to open yourself to the wonder of God's gift for you that day.

Thank you,
Padre Sean

FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST

Mark's Gospel account today is built on a double astonishment or amazement: the neighbors and family of Jesus are astonished that he taught in the synagogue with wisdom and worked powerful signs. Jesus, in turn, is amazed that they have no faith in him because they know his origins, not because of any fault with his teaching or ministry. As with many of Mark's passages, we get a rather intimate glimpse here of the human part of Jesus' two-fold nature. To reinforce his point, Mark tells of Jesus' return to his native place, and further points out that he is in the midst of his own family members there. From the very people he expected the most, Jesus received the least. In the day of the Gospel's writing, Mark was attempting to illustrate a lesson to the house of Israel: the God of the covenant expected the greatest faith from the house of Israel, but often received the least. This is a good source for reflection on our part, we who are Jesus' followers today. For the wisdom of Christ to continue and for our lives to be seen as signs of his power, he must expect and be able to find great faith among us. Will he? Can he? Does he? Or is he, once again, amazed by its absence?

Queridos Amigos,

Hace unas semanas fue a un retiro con los sacerdotes de la diócesis y me pareció muy informativo y relajante. El presentador era de la comunidad Norbertine y su tema fue "Como superar el sentimiento de desesperación en nuestras vidas."

Básicamente, tenemos que hacer algo, cualquier cosa que nos mueva – pasar tiempo con los amigos y organizar reuniones con las personas que no se han contactado. Pasa tiempo con alguien que disfruta de tu compañía. Pasa tiempo en oración, compartiendo sus sueños con el Señor y sus amigos cercanos. Ayuda a alguien u otras personas que tienen necesidades.

Una cosa muy importante que tenemos que tomar en cuenta es que el sentimiento de desesperación es una oportunidad de hacer algo diferente y se supone sacarnos de nuestra zona de comodidad. Comienza tu día con una oración para abrir tu corazón y tu mente a la maravilla del don que Dios te va a dar ese día.

Gracias,
Padre Sean

FE EN JESUCRISTO

El incidente que nos cuenta san Marcos en el Evangelio de hoy se basa en un doble asombro: primero, los vecinos y parientes de Jesús se asombran de verlo enseñar en la sinagoga con tanta sabiduría, y de ver su poder para hacer milagros. Y Jesús, a su vez, se extraña de la incredulidad de aquella gente, que no pone su fe en él, no porque hallen alguna falta en su enseñanza o en su ministerio, sino porque conocen sus orígenes y su familia. Aquí, como en muchos otros incidentes de su Evangelio, Marcos nos deja ver un aspecto bastante íntimo de la parte humana de la doble naturaleza de Jesús. Para reforzar lo que quiere que veamos, Marcos nos cuenta cómo Jesús vuelve a su pueblo, y nos hace notar que está allí entre sus familiares. Y de la gente de quienes más esperaba es que menos recibe. En la época en que estaba escribiendo su Evangelio, san Marcos trataba de enseñar una lección muy importante para la casa de Israel, el Dios de la Alianza esperaba encontrar la fe más intensa en la casa de Israel, pero muchas veces allí fue donde menos la encontró. Y es bueno que reflexionemos sobre esto, nosotros que hoy día somos el Pueblo de Dios. Para que la Sabiduría de Cristo continúe en este mundo, y para que nuestras vidas sean signos de su poder, Jesús espera hallar, y tiene que hallar, una gran fe en nosotros. ¿La hallará? ¿O quedará, una vez más, pasmado de nuestra poca fe?
