Brothers and Sisters,

We have a wonderful Church to celebrate the most perfect prayer to God, which Jesus gave us to celebrate, in remembrance of His life, death and resurrection. During the Mass (the celebration of the Eucharist) it is our chance to actually feel the presence of Jesus and the Apostles in the symbols, actions and the prayers of the people and Priest. If there are disturbances around the Church that distract the attention of the one praying or if you don't pay close attention or participate in the prayers or actions being conducted, the entire experience of the celebration can be lost.

I received a letter from a very well intentioned member of our community who wanted to express his concerns about serious disturbances during Mass. This is a quote from his letter, "... Much is assumed that the adults at Mass themselves have achieved a level of socialization equal to the task of remaining quiet and attentive for one hour a week. One hour out of 168. Imagine!! It is hardly assured. We have had to move to avoid adults talking endlessly during Mass only to find ourselves next to a grandfather playing patty-cake with a two year old during the Elevation. Being cute has trumped the sacred."

Oh My God! What's going on in the pews? Why do we go to Church? Wow, some people really need to get real about going to church and showing respect for their neighbor and the people around you. In Church there cannot be a free-for-all going on. We are in Church for prayer. Please be courteous and respectful to those around you. Children who cannot behave in church are to be taken out side until they can behave properly.

Small children are not responsible for themselves; it is the parents, the adults who bring them who give example and teach them how to behave respectfully around others. Without discipline children do not learn to be responsible adults. Believe me when I say, "if you can't teach them as children, society will find a place for them in an institution of their own design." Please don't think I am saying children are not welcome, they are most definitely welcome but parents don't stop being parents in church and taking your child outside is not a bad thing. Bringing your child to church is very important, don't stop, just remember it is a teaching moment like all other teaching moments with children.

The old lady or man sitting next to them deserves her small moment of peaceful prayer during Mass.

Hermanos y hermanas,

Tenemos una Iglesia maravillosa de celebrar la oración más perfecta de Dios, que Jesús nos dio para celebrar, en recuerdo de su vida, muerte y resurrección. Durante la Misa (la celebración de la Eucaristía) es nuestra oportunidad de sentir la presencia de Jesús y los apóstoles en los símbolos, acciones y las oraciones de la gente y sacerdote Si hay perturbaciones alrededor de la Iglesia que distraen la atención del que ora o si usted no da mucha atención o participa en las oraciones o acciones que se realizan, se pierde toda la experiencia de la celebración.

He recibió una carta de un miembro muy bien intencionado de nuestra comunidad que quiso expresar sus preocupaciones sobre graves disturbios durante la Misa. Esta es una frase de la carta, "Mucho se supone que los adultos mismos han alcanzado un nivel de socialización en la Misa a la altura de permanecer quieto y atento durante una hora a la semana. Una hora de 168. Imagínate! No es de aseguró. Hemos tenido que movernos para evitar los adultos que hablan sin cesar durante la misa sólo para encontrarnos junto a un abuelo jugando patty-cake con un niño de dos años durante la elevación. Siendo gracioso ha triunfado lo sagrado"

Dios mío! ¿Qué está pasando en los bancos? ¿Por qué vamos a la Iglesia? Wow, algunas personas realmente necesitan ser realistas acerca de ir a la iglesia y mostrar respeto por su vecino y las personas que te rodean. En la Iglesia no puede haber una = gratuitos para -todo pasando. Estamos en la Iglesia para la oración. Por favor sea cortés y respetuoso a los que te rodean. Los niños que no pueden comportarse en la iglesia deben ser llevados fuera hasta que puedan comportarse correctamente.

Los niños pequeños no son responsables por sí mismos; son los padres, los adultos que les traen que dan el ejemplo y les enseñan cómo comportarse respetuosamente alrededor de otros. Sin disciplina los niños no aprenden a ser adultos responsables. Créanme cuando les digo: "Si no les puede enseñar a los niños, la sociedad se encuentra un lugar para ellos en una institución de su propio diseño." Por favor, no piensen que estoy diciendo que los niños no son bienvenidos, son definitivamente bienvenidos, pero no dejan de ser padres en la iglesia y que los padres lleven a su hijo fuera no es una mala cosa. Llevar a su hijo a la iglesia es muy importante, no se detienen, sólo recuerda que es un momento de enseñanza como todos los otros momentos de enseñanza con los niños.

La vieja dama o hombre sentado su lado merece su pequeño momento de oración pacífica durante la misa.
