My dear people of God,

Thursday of this week, July 16, is the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It is one of many Marian feasts throughout the church year. It is not a holy day but is a good day to recall Mary's desire to help us along our journey through this life. Mary acknowledged herself to be God's humble servant. Her will was only to do God's will. Since she is human just like us, she can relate to our human struggles. Her desire is to do what she can to help us get to heaven. And God has blest her with power and influence in this regard.

I don't know if this is true for you, but I was invested in the scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel as a second grader at the time of my first Holy Communion. Faithfully wearing the brown scapular is a sign of one's dedication to God's will after Mary's example. It is also a reminder of the Lord's words, "The one who holds out to the end will see salvation." Mt. 24:13. And so "let us persevere in running the race."

May God bless your week!

Love, Fr Bruce

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

A very special “thank you” to Edith Schall, who is coordinating the pictures of parishioners for our Parish Pictorial Directory. Thank you to other parishioners who have said “yes” to helping sign people up, greeting people when they come for their pictures, etc. We look forward to having a current Parish Pictorial Directory for our parish and for the other three Catholic parishes here in Minot. This would not be happening without your help.

We still need help to greet people and sign them in when they come to have their pictures taken. Please contact Edith Schall (838-4150).

If you have not signed up to have your picture taken, please do so by signing up on-line. Go to our church’s web site, insert the number in your group, then you will be able see the days available and select your appointment time. Or call Edith Schall (838-4150), Dee Ballantyne (839-1890), or Marie Kenney (837-6081).

Next Week's Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

Gospel Reflection: If you have ever had the frustrating experience of being interrupted while you were trying to tell about some wonderful adventure, you will understand how the apostles feel in this Gospel story. They have just returned from their first missionary journey. They want to tell Jesus all about it. He leads them off to a quiet place where they can tell their stories, but the crowds follow them because they are hungry for Jesus' teaching and His healing touch. Seeing the crowd, Jesus is moved to respond to them. They are like sheep that have been scattered. Out of love, the Good Shepherd calls them together and guides them. The apostles' adventure stories will have to wait.

Discussion Points for Gospel: Describe your probable reaction to the following scene: You are telling your parents at the dinner table all about an exciting event you shared with your friends. Your younger sister or brother keeps interrupting and demanding your parents' attention. What do you do? What is your response? What can we learn from the example of Jesus in this Gospel story?
