FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners:

As we look at the devastation of the floods that have engulfed Galveston, Houston, and the surrounding towns in Southern Texas, our hearts go out to our fellow brothers and sisters who have lost loved ones, lost their homes, or perhaps their livelihood. Yet, in the midst of such grief and devastation, the triumph of the human spirit is seen daily. Exhausted 1st responders have worked from sunrise to sunset and through the night to provide search & rescue operations to those in most need. Still other rescue and assistance has come from friends, neighbors and good samaritans who genuinely want to help their fellow citizens. There has been a tidal wave of community service and humanitarian good will of people from Houston, the State of Texas, and far beyond her borders that want to lend a helping-hand! It reminds me of the words of St. Paul, where he writes: "We are all parts of One Body... whenever one part suffers... we all suffer." (1 Corinthians 12:26)

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap. has asked that all parishes in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia consider taking up a one-time, special collection on the weekend of September 16-17, 2017 to support continued relief efforts in the wake of Hurricane Harvey. Individuals may also contribute directly to Catholic Charities USA, the official domestic relief agency of the Catholic Church in the United States by visiting <https://www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/>.

Let us unite with our brothers and sisters in prayer and support in their darkest hour. May the good Lord watch over them. May God Bless and Protect them, and may He be their true hope and be their constant companion!

Fr. Richard

St. Peter the Apostle 2017-2018

Mission Statement

Following along our sacred journey with Saint John Neumann and Mother Caroline Friess, SSND, together we will encourage each other as a multicultural faith community to grow academically, spiritually, and emotionally with Christian values. The positive energy we will provide will create a harmonious and respectful atmosphere that will contribute to the building up of God's kingdom here on earth.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PASTOR

Queridos Feligreses:

Mirando la devastación de las inundaciones que han envuelto a Galveston, Houston, y los pueblos de los alrededores en el Sur de Tejas, nuestros corazones van a nuestros hermanos y hermanas que han perdido seres queridos, sus hogares, o quizás su sustento. Aun así, en medio de tanto dolor y devastación, el triunfo del espíritu humano se ve a diario. Los cansados trabajadores de 1ros auxilios trabajaron del amanecer hasta el anochecer y a través de la noche para proveer búsqueda y operaciones de rescate para los más necesitados. Otros rescates y asistencia ha llegado de amigos, vecinos y buenos samaritanos que genuinamente quieren ayudar a sus compañeros ciudadanos. Ha habido una ola de servicios comunitarios y buena voluntad humanitaria de gente de Houston, el estado de Texas, y más allá de sus fronteras que quieren ayudar. Me recuerda de las palabras de San Pablo que escribió: Somos todos parte de Un Cuerpo...cuando una parte sufre ...todos sufrimos.” (1 Corintios 12:26)

El Arzobispo Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap. Ha pedido que todas las parroquias en la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia consideren tomar una colecta especial en el fin de semana de 16-17 de Septiembre del 2017 para apoyar los esfuerzos de auxilio al despertar del Huracán Harvey. Individuos también pueden contribuir directamente a CatholicCharities USA, la agencia oficial del alivio domestico de la Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos, visitando a www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/.

Nos unimos con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en oración y apoyo es su hora más oscura. Que el Señor los cuide. Que Dios los bendiga y proteja, y que El sea su esperanza y su compañero constante!

Padre Richard
