NEW PARISHIONERS:

It's great to have you in our community. If you have not registered in the parish, registration packets are available in the church vestibule or the social hall, or call the rectory at 756-7771.

We also invite everyone to the social hall after the 8:00am and 10:30am Masses for coffee and fellowship.

Reflection: The Ascension of the Lord. "This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven." (Acts 1:11)

When we think of the ascension of Jesus, we often think about how marvelous it must have been to see him whisked away into the sky, heralded by angels and looked upon with awe by the apostles. We focus, in other words, on his act of ascending. But what is even more important is everything that happened after Jesus ascended. Let's take a look.

First, the ascended Lord took up his throne as King over all of creation. Paul tells us that Jesus is "far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come" (Ephesians 1:21). Everything must submit to his gospel of mercy and redemption.

Second, Jesus "has passed through the heavens" as a "high priest" who has been "tested in every way, yet without sin" (Hebrews 4:15-16). This means that we can now "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace" for all our needs (4:16). We don't have to be afraid of him.

Third, by ascending, Jesus opened the door for the Holy Spirit. Just before he left, he promised, "You will be baptized with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 1:5). He promised that "the love of God" would be "poured out into your hearts through the Holy Spirit" (Romans 5:5). Finally, Jesus' ascension creates a longing in us for him to come back. At the ascension, the angel promised, "This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven" (Acts 1:11). It assures us that a time will come when sin, pain, and suffering will be no more. It promises us that Jesus will keep watch over us until that great and awesome day. So rejoice today! Lift up your heart and lift up your eyes to Jesus, now enthroned in the heavens.

Prayer: "Come, Lord Jesus, and fill me with your Spirit!"

Taken from "The Word Among Us-May 2018"

Prayer: O God, you are my light and my help; whom shall I fear? You are the stronghold of my life; before whom shall I be afraid? One thing I have asked of you, for this will I seek, that I may dwell in your holy house all the days of my life.

Advertisers Needed for the Weekly Bulletin

Advertising in the bulletin helps offset the cost of the bulletin printing and is a great way to share your business with the parishioners. As you know, we are now printing our bulletin locally with Minuteman Printing in Orem. Our parish is growing –we need more bulletins, and more advertisers. If you are interested, or know someone who may be interested, please contact Mary in the office at 801-756-7771 Monday or Friday after noon for more information.
