Dear Parishioners & Friends of St. Barbara Parish:

On the evening of His Resurrection, Jesus first “breathes on them” and then says, “Whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven.” In the book of Genesis, it describes God as breathing life into Adam after he was made of clay. Jesus realizes that humanity can only really come to life with forgiveness. We come to new life having received the forgiveness of our sins, but we also allow others to find a new life and new chance as we give them the gift of our personal forgiveness. The most obvious effect of the power of Jesus’ Resurrection is found in forgiveness of sins. Even before we share in the fullness of eternal life after we die, we begin to live in that eternal life through the waters of baptism for the forgiveness of sins, as we affirm each Sunday in the Creed.

In the mystery of the Mercy of God, the Resurrection promises new life to all of us human beings with all of our sins and failings. Share that new life of forgiveness from God with all those who offend you! Let ALLELUIAS stream from more and more hearts each day as the mercy of God floods the world and makes everything RENEWED IN GRACE!

- Fr. Joseph Hilinski
 - Fr. Andrzej Knapik

Wesołego Alleluja!
 Happy Easter!
