Getting Ready for Lent...

Every year we take the three weekends before Lent to prepare ourselves for the Springtime of our Souls.

Lent literally means "Spring" because it refers to the "len(g)t-hening" of light as days grow longer!

Prayer is our focus this week. All these opportunities for personal and communal prayer open us up to the directions and help and affirmation which God is constantly pouring into us.

Lent is about turning over the hard crust of sin (like hardened soil) so that the seeds and spring rain (Grace) can do nature's work.

Start making plans now!

Fr. Bill

THE MASS: WHAT WE DO AND WHY WE DO IT

From the Entrance Procession to the Final Blessing and everything in between, the Order of the Mass has changed many times over hundreds of years. Have you ever wondered why? Or how?

Hanson will be using a book entitled The Mystery of Faith by Lawrence J. Johnson. We will have a limited number of copies for sale for $15 each. You can also purchase a copy on-line at fdlc.org/publications/44510.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Month of December 2017

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist the following people:

Children: 168
Adults: 203
Seniors: 5

There was a total of 376 neighbors in need for December 2017 and 200 bags of food distributed.

In the Gospel today, we read that because Jesus spoke with authority, his reputation spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee. As His disciples, we can also speak with authority when we put our faith into actions by helping the poor and suffering.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist many families by providing food and financial assistance with utility, rent and other bills. May God bless you!

On Sunday, February 4th, many of us will gather to enjoy watching the Super Bowl Game. On this day, the four soup kitchens in our area are participating in a special event, "Souper Bowl" Sunday. We are asking our friends to share a small amount of money to help fund The Patchogue Neighbor's INN soup kitchens.

It takes approximately $1000.00 per week to pay for the food and supplies for these four soup kitchens, which serve hot meals four days a week to the hungry and homeless in the Bellport/Patchogue area.

No matter what amount you may donate, please be assured that, collectively, your gift makes a difference to the guests who visit these soup kitchens.

Volunteers will be at the door of the church after all Masses on the weekend of February 3rd and February 4th to accept your donations. We are most grateful for your generosity.

Overcoming the Divisions that Divide Us

We live in a world of deep divisions. Everywhere we see polarization, people bitterly divided from each other by ideology, politics, economic theory, moral beliefs, and theology. We tend to use over-simplistic categories within which to understand these divisions: the left and the right opposing each other, liberals and conservatives at odds, pro-life vying with pro-choice.

Virtually every social and moral issue is a war-zone: the status of women, climate change, gender roles, sexuality, marriage and family as institutions, the role of government, how the LGBTQ community is to be understood, among other issues. And our churches aren't exempt; too often we cannot agree on anything. Civility has disappeared from public discourse even within our churches where there is now as much division and hostility within each denomination as there is between them. More and more, we cannot discuss openly any sensitive matter, even within our own families. Instead we discuss politics, religion, and values only within our own ideological circles; and there, rather than challenging each other, we mostly end up feeding each other in our biases and indignations thus becoming even more intolerant, bitter, and judgmental.

Scripture calls this enmity, hatred, and indeed that's its proper name. We are becoming hate-filled people who both fuel and justify our hatred on religious and moral grounds. We need only to watch the news on any night to see this. How's this to be overcome?

At the more macro level in politics and religion, it's hard to see how these bitter divides will ever be bridged, especially when so much of our public discourse is feeding and widening the division. What's needed is nothing short of religious conversion, a religious change of heart, and that's contingent on the individual. The collective heart will change only when individual hearts first do. We help save the sanity of the world by first safeguarding our own sanity, but that's no easy task.

It's not as simple as everyone simply agreeing to think nicer thoughts. Nor, it seems, will we find much common ground in our public dialogues. The dialogue that's needed isn't easily come by; certainly we haven't come by it yet. Many groups are trying for it, but without much success. Generally what happens is that the even most-well intended dialogue quickly degenerates into an attempt to by each side to score its own ideological points rather than in genuinely trying to understand each other. Where does that leave us?

The real answer, I believe, lies in an understanding of how the cross and death of Jesus brings about reconciliation. The author of the Letter to the Ephesians tells us that Jesus broke down the barrier of hostility that existed between communities by creating one person where formerly there had been two – and he did it this “by reconciling both [sides] in one body through his cross, which put that enmity to death.” (Ephesians 2, 16)

How does the cross of Christ put enmity to death? Not through some kind of magic. Jesus didn't break down the divisions between us by mystically paying off some debt for our sins through his suffering, as if God needed to be appeased by blood to forgive us and open the gates of heaven. That image is simply the metaphor behind our icons and language about being washed clean of sin and saved by the blood of Christ. What happened in the cross and death of Jesus is something that asks for our imitation not simply our admiration. What happened in the cross and death of Jesus is an example for us to imitate. What are we to imitate?

What Jesus did in his passion and death was to transform bitterness and division rather than to retransmit them and give them back in kind. In the love which he showed in his passion and death Jesus did this: He took in hatred, held it inside himself, transformed it, and gave back love. He took in bitterness, held it, transformed it, and gave back graciousness. He took in curses, held them, transformed them, and gave back blessing. He took in paranoia, held it, transformed it, and gave back big-heartedness. He took in murder, held it, transformed it, and gave back forgiveness. And he took in enmity, bitter division, held it, transformed it, and through that revealed to us the deep secret for forming community, namely, we need to take away the hatred that divides us by absorbing and holding it within ourselves and thereby transforming it. Like a water purifier which holds within itself the toxins and the poisons and gives back only pure water, we must hold within ourselves the toxins that poison community and give back only graciousness and openness to everyone. That's the only key to overcome division.

We live in bitterly divisive times, paralyzed in terms of meeting amicably on virtually every sensitive issue of politics, economics, morality, and religion. That stalemate will remain until one by one, we each transform rather than enflame and retransmit the hatred that divides us.
