Bulletin Reflection: Like the sensible bridesmaid in today's parable, good stewards make sure that they, and whatever gifts make sure that they, and whatever gifts are theirs to share, stand ready to serve when the master calls.

Living Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that God's gifts are present in all facets of life and should be used in service to our neighbor and the wider community.

The First Baptist Church of Sunderland Springs, Texas underwent an unimaginable crucifixion this week. Imagine how committed these members are running their church with only 50 members, and now half of them lost tragically. We pray for them and share their grief as fellow Christians.

Pantry Progress...

(top left) parishioner Joe Tapler, standing next to our St. Vincent de Paul president Ellen Sullivan, joins the long list of folks volunteering their efforts to reduce the cost of providing a space for refrigerators and freezers to supply fresh food to our neighbors in need. (bottom left) The addition adjoins our existing pantry and garage, painted by parishioner Jeff Bland. Paving is being provided by Jeremy Palermo and family. Project coordination by Neil Koenig and Joe Gagliano.

Grateful Giving 2017-18

Let's join together in keeping a daily log of God's Blessings for the three weeks leading up to the Feast of Christ the King. Then we will pledge our thanks to God by taking-a-step in giving back for God's work in here in our Parish. Our annual pastoral report details all of our work and it's annual cost.

Mary Immaculate News & Events

Have you ever wondered why the gospels were written...or why... and who was the intended audience?

Please join Fr. Don Hanson who will be hosting a series of talks entitled "Discovering St. Mark's Gospel."

Beginning in Advent, as we change liturgical years, we will begin reading St. Mark's Gospel. Fr. Hanson will explain the historical setting of the Gospels and the culture of those times and why this has an impact on our comprehension of the Gospels.

Understanding all of these influences will help us to come to a deeper appreciation of the Gospels and how we can apply it to our lives today.

The session will begin at 7:00 PM on Wednesday, October 25th and will meet for a total of 5 weeks, ending on November 22nd in the Large Church.

If you cannot make it to every session, come when you can. There is no need to commit to the entire series.

Can You Help?

Amazingly, the Advent season is fast approaching; the First Sunday of Advent is December 2nd/December 3rd. In keeping with new traditions at Mary Immaculate, we will be decorating both churches for Advent, followed by Christmas. Let's join together as a community in the decoration process, so we can all have a chance to help out.

On Sunday 11/26 (Sunday after Thanksgiving) immediately following the 11am Mass, we will meet in the large church to bring the decorations out of storage, sort and prepare for put up. Similar process will be needed for the small church after 3pm on 11/26.

We will try complete as much as we can but decorating will continue as needed throughout the week, completing by Friday December 1.

Any questions, please contact: Anne Martinez @ 631-834-2698 (m) or 631-286-4160 (h)

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

We NEED you.
Can you HELP?

Each year Mary Immaculate Parish collects food for approximately 130 families for Thanksgiving Dinners. In order to accomplish this great feat and to help replenish our Food Pantry, we have a Food Drive at local grocery stores.

We need approximately 240 volunteers to spend 1 to 2 hours accepting food donations at the doors of the local stores listed below.

The Mary Immaculate, St. Vincent de Paul 2017 Thanksgiving Food Drive Schedule is as follows:

- IGA Cirillo, Bellport: 11/18
- Best Market, Shirley: 11/12
- King Kullen, Patchogue: 11/12
- Best Market, E. Patchogue: 11/18

Distribution: Sunday, November 19th

Any questions, please contact Ken Hawkins at 631-286-2559.

In addition, “Turkey Feathers” will be for sale after each Mass for $20 each to support our Thanksgiving Food Baskets.

The Good News of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need to do is beautiful in “small matters.” The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are sharing God's extravagant love.

Whether you are shopping or donating, you are

The wise maidens went into the banquet.
 But the foolish ones had left to buy oil,
 and when they got back, it was too late.

The Parable of the 10 Bridesmaids

10 maidens went to meet the bridegroom.
 5 were wise, and 5 were foolish.

The foolish ones did not take any oil for their lamps.

Circle the hidden objects.

The wise maidens had lamps ready when the bridegroom came.

In each set, cross out the lamp that doesn't match.

Paralysis, Exasperation, and Helplessness as Prayer

Several years ago I received an email that literally stopped my breath. A man who had been for many years an intellectual and faith mentor to me, a man whom I thoroughly trusted, and a man with whom I had developed a life-giving friendship, had killed both his wife and himself in a murder-suicide. The news left me gasping for air, paralyzed in terms of how to understand and accept this as well as how to pray in the face of this.

I had neither words of explanation nor words for prayer. My heart and my head were like two water pumps working a dry well, useless and frustrated. Whatever consolation I had was drawn from an assurance from persons who knew him more intimately that there had been major signs of mental deterioration in the time leading up to this horrible event and they were morally certain that this was the result of an organic dysfunction in his brain, not an indication of his person. Yet ... how does one pray in a situation like this? There aren't any words.

And we have all experienced situations like this: the tragic death of someone we love by murder, suicide, overdose, or accident. Or, the exasperation and helplessness we feel in the face of the many seemingly senseless events we see daily in our world: Terrorists killing thousands of innocent people; natural disasters leaving countless persons dead or homeless; mass killings by deranged individuals in New York, Paris, Las Vegas, Florida, San Bernardino, Sandy Hook, among other places; and millions of refugees having to flee their homelands because of war or poverty. And we all we know people who have received terminal sentences in medical clinics and had to face what seems as an unfair death: young children whose lives are just starting and who shouldn't be asked at so tender an age to have to process mortality and young mothers dying whose children still desperately need them.

In the face of these things, we aren't just exasperated by the senselessness of the situation we struggle too to find both heart and words with which to pray. How do we pray when we are paralyzed by senselessness and tragedy? How do we pray when we no longer have the heart for it?

St. Paul tells us that when we don't know how to pray, the Spirit in groans too deep for words prays through us. What an extraordinary text! Paul tells us that when we can still find the words with which to pray this is not our deepest prayer. Likewise when we still have the heart to pray, this too is not our deepest prayer. Our deepest prayer is when we are rendered mute and groaning in exasperation, in frustration, in helplessness. Wordless exasperation is often our deepest prayer. We pray most deeply when we are so driven to our knees so as to be unable to do anything except surrender to helplessness. Our groaning, wordless, seemingly the antithesis of prayer, is indeed our prayer. It is the Spirit praying through us. How so?

The Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit, is, as scripture assures us, the spirit of love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, longsuffering, fidelity, mildness, faith, and chastity. And that Spirit lives deep within us, placed there by God in our very make-up and put into us even more deeply by our baptism. When we are exasperated and driven to our knees by a tragedy which is too painful and senseless to accept and absorb our groans of helplessness are in fact the Spirit of God groaning in us, suffering all that it isn't, yearning for goodness, beseeching God in a language beyond words.

Sometimes we can find the heart and the words with which to pray, but there are other times when, in the words of the Book of Lamentation, all we can do is put our mouths to the dust and wait. The poet, Rainer Marie Rilke, once gave this advice to a person who had written him, lamenting that in the face of a devastating loss he was so paralyzed that he did not know what he could possibly do with the pain he was experiencing. Rilke's advice: Give that heaviness back to the earth itself, the earth is heavy, mountains are heavy, the seas are heavy. In effect: Let your groaning be your prayer!

When we don't know how to pray, the Spirit in groans too deep for words prays through us. So every time we are face-to-face with a tragic situation that leaves us stuttering, mute, and so without heart that all we can do is say, I can't explain this! I can't accept this! I can't deal with this! This is senseless! I am paralyzed in my emotions! I am paralyzed in my faith! I no longer have the heart to pray, it can be consoling to know that this paralyzing exasperation is our prayer – and perhaps the deepest and most sincere prayer we have ever offered.
