2018 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

March, 2018

Dear Friends,

When Jesus gathered His disciples to celebrate the Passover supper that would foreshadow His sacrificial death, He left them a great example of service when He tied a towel about his waist and washed the feet of the Apostles: “As I have done for you, you should also do.” (John: 13:15)

Let His words and actions challenge each of us to be the Hands of Christ's Mercy.

Because of your generosity to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, individuals and families experience the merciful presence of Christ through Outreach and Catholic Charities' programs that serve the basic needs of the poor, troubled, weak and oppressed in our community.

Consider the multitude of children who are taught the faith through our Catholic schools and religious education programs. See how the boundaries of our Church extend beyond our own properties to our children benefiting from campus, young adult and youth ministry programs.

This Appeal also supports our efforts in evangelization, liturgy and worship while ensuring that we have the funds and resources to support priests and deacons throughout their formation.

May we all go forth this Lenten season renewed in spirit and in our commitment to respond wholeheartedly to Jesus' call to be His hands and His instruments of Dramatic Missionary Growth.

Thank you for your continuing generosity in supporting the good works of our Church. May God bless you with many graces during this holy season of Lent.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Create a new family tradition this Easter!

EASTER STORY COOKIES

Making these cookies together is a unique way for parents to teach their children about Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

Bible verses are read while following the recipe, and each ingredient and action represents part of the passion and resurrection of our Lord.

You will need the following: a Bible; 1 c. whole pecans; 1 cup sugar; 1 tsp. vinegar; 3 egg whites; 1 cup sugar; a plastic baggie and tape

- Preheat the oven to 300°.
- Place the pecans in the plastic baggie. While the children break them up into small pieces with a wooden spoon, explain that after Jesus was arrested, the Roman soldiers beat him.
Read JOHN 19:1-3
- Let each child smell the vinegar, and explain that when Jesus was thirsty on the cross, He was given vinegar to drink. Read JOHN 19:28-30
- The eggs represent life. Add the egg whites to the vinegar and explain that Jesus gave His life to give us life. Read JOHN 10:10-11
- Sprinkle a little salt into each child's hand. Let them taste it and brush it into the bowl. Explain that this represents the salty tears shed by Jesus' followers and the bitterness of our own sins.
Read LUKE 23-27
- Add 1 cup of sugar and explain that the sweetest part of the story is that Jesus died because he loves us. He wants us to know and belong to Him. Read PSALMS 34:38 and JOHN 3:16
- Beat with mixer on high for 12-15 minutes until stiff peaks form. Explain that the color white represents the purity in God's eye of those whose sins have been cleansed by Jesus.
Read ISAIAH 1:18 and JOHN 3:1-3
- Fold in broken nuts and drop by teaspoons onto a wax paper covered baking sheet. Explain that each mound represents the rocky tomb where Jesus' body was laid. Read MATTHEW 27:57-60
- Put the cookie sheet in the oven, close the door, turn the oven OFF, and have each child seal it with tape. Explain that Jesus' tomb was sealed, and read MATTHEW 27:65-66
- Before heading to bed, they may feel sad leaving the cookies overnight. Jesus' followers were in despair when the tomb was sealed. Read JOHN 16:20 and 22
- On Easter morning, open the oven and give everyone a cookie. Notice the cracked surface and take a bite. The cookies are hollow!

On the first Easter, Jesus' followers were amazed to find the tomb open and empty!

Our Need to Pray

Unless you somehow have a foot outside of your culture, the culture will swallow you whole. Daniel Berrigan wrote that and it's true too in this sense: Unless you can drink in strength from a source outside yourself, your natural proclivities for paranoia, bitterness, and hatred will invariably swallow you whole.

The disciples in Luke's Gospel understood this. They approached Jesus and asked him to teach them how to pray because they saw him doing things that they did not see anyone else doing. He was able to meet hatred with love, to genuinely forgive others, to endure misunderstanding and opposition without giving in to self-pity and bitterness, and to retain within himself a center of peace and non-violence. This, they knew, was as extraordinary as walking on water, and they sensed that he was drawing the strength to do this from a source outside him, through prayer.

They knew they themselves were incapable of resisting bitterness and hatred and they wanted to be as strong as Jesus and so they asked him: Lord, teach us to pray. No doubt they imagined that this would simply be a question of learning a certain technique; but as the Gospels make clear, linking to a divine source outside of ourselves isn't always easy or automatic, even for Jesus, as we see from his struggle in the Garden of Gethsemane, his "agony in the garden".

Jesus, himself, had to struggle mightily at times to ground himself in God as we see from his prayer in Gethsemane. His struggle there is described as an "agony", and this needs to be carefully understood. "Agony" was a technical term used at the time for athletes. Before entering the stadium or arena for a contest, athletes would first work their bodies into a sweat, a warm lather, an agony, to make their muscles warm and ready for the contest. The Gospels tell us that Jesus also worked himself into a sweat, except in his case he sweated blood as he readied himself in his heart for the contest, the test, he was about to enter, his passion.

And what was that contest? The test he was readying himself for wasn't as it is commonly believed an agonizing over the decision whether to let himself be crucified or whether to invoke divine power and save himself from this humiliation and death. That was never the issue in his struggle in Gethsemane. He had long before accepted that he was going to die. The question was how, how would he die, in love or in bitterness?

In the end, it was a struggle to strengthen his will so that he would die with a loving, warm, forgiving heart. And it was a struggle; a positive outcome was in doubt. Amidst all the darkness, hatred, bitterness, injustice, and misunderstanding that surrounded him, amidst everything that stood unfairly against him and was antithetical to his person and message, Jesus struggled mightily to cling to a source that could give him the strength to resist the hatred and violence around him, that could give him the heart to forgive his enemies, that could give him the graciousness to forgive the good thief, and that could give him the inner strength to turn humiliation, pain, and injustice into compassion rather than bitterness.

The Gospels put this metaphorically as a struggle to "stay awake", namely, to stay awake to his inner identity as God's Beloved, an identity that he appropriated at his baptism and which shaped his very consciousness during all the years of his ministry. In Gethsemane, amidst everything that invites him (and us) into moral amnesia, Jesus manages to stay awake to his deeper reality and to his identity as God's beloved. His disciples don't. As the Gospels tell us, during Jesus' great struggle they fell asleep and their sleep ("out of sheer sorrow") was more than physical fatigue. This is evident when, immediately after Jesus has managed to ground himself against hatred and non-violence, Peter succumbs to both and cuts off the ear of the high priest's servant. Peter was asleep, in more ways than one, in a sleep that signifies the absence of prayer in one's life.

Prayer is meant to keep us awake, which means it's meant to keep us connected to a source outside our of natural instincts and proclivities which can keep us grounded in love, forgiveness, non-retaliation, and non-violence when everything inside of us and around us screams for bitterness, hatred, and retaliation. And if Jesus had to sweat blood in trying to stay connected to that source when he was tested, we can expect that the cost for us will be the same, struggle, agony, wanting in every fiber of our being to give in, clinging to love precariously by the skin of our teeth, and then having God's angel strengthen us only when we've been writhing long enough in the struggle so that we can let God's strength do for us what our own strength cannot do.

Lord, teach us to pray!

It had been written, "See, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."
