From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday after Christmas we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and this leads us to contemplate the nature of the Christian family. Here is a beautiful image that visually communicates this reality:

Bartolomé Esteban Murillo, "The Two Trinities"

The top half of the painting depicts the Holy Trinity, God the Father, the Holy Spirit appearing as a dove, and the bottom half depicts the Holy Family with Mary and Joseph. In the center of the picture is Jesus Christ, positioned to show that He is both the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity and the Incarnate member of a human Holy Family. Murillo was trying to illustrate a simple but earth-shattering truth: The Christian family is an icon of the Blessed Trinity. Within the Trinity there exists a mutual outpouring of love between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit: that is the foundation of the loving relationships of the family.

The Catechism explains further the dignity and potential of a Christian family and how it participates in the Triune love of God. Catechism #2205 states: "The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father's work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity. The Christian family has an evangelizing and missionary task."

Despite the daily details of family life, its imperfections, and the steady challenges, it is important that we keep our eyes fixed steadily on God and the revelation of love that Jesus Christ has given us. Of course there is a clear distinction between a human family and the reality of the Triune God. While the parents existed before the life of the children and creation of the family, there was never a time that God was not Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. There was never a time that the Father was without the Son or the Father and Son without the Holy Spirit. We don't want our limitations of human imagery to confuse who God is.

Nevertheless, our experience of being persons and the possibility of profound relationships is illuminated by God who is the true communion of persons, each divine person fully God yet totally given over in relationship to the other; a unity so perfect that we can truly say there is One God. Our communion of love is a hint, an echo, a faint image of that blazing divine reality. This is the high calling to the adventure of love that every human is called into through their vocation!

- Fr. Matt
