*"Advice" books abound on marriage and parenting.
Jesus tells us in today's gospel the real secret. Satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting". It's about "giving" ourselves.
If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.*

In short, we will learn, in the words of the traditional prayer, why we need the Holy Spirit in our lives to "renew the face of the earth". The Holy Spirit, Third Person of the Holy Trinity, is the bond between the Father and the Son who dwells in our hearts and who enables us to become sons and daughters of the Living God.

A Note from Fr. Tom

EVICTING THE ENEMY IN THE GATES: (This is condensed from an article by Greg Schlueter, president of a Catholic organization called Mass Impact.) Satan's greatest trick is deceiving us into thinking he doesn't exist (C.S. Lewis). Or perhaps greater, to know he does exist, and the ways he's working, but to do nothing about it.

Pope Francis said, "We too need to guard the faith, guard it from darkness. Many times, however, it is a darkness under the guise of light. This is because the devil, as Saint Paul says, disguises himself at times as an angel of light." Does this speak to you as it does to me? Do we really believe our ultimate call is to see God, to be "pure of heart" (Matt. 5:8), such that we're aware of the Enemy's attack through pornography? Such that we do something about it?

Putting it straight: If you or those you love are on-line anywhere without filtering or accountability software you're playing games with eternal life. You're playing with Fire. The door is wide open, and for many if not most of the most "religious" and "holy" among us, Satan is coming in. Look at these statistics:

- 90% of children 8-16 have viewed porn;
- 64% of Christian men say they view porn once a month;
- 50% of pastors regularly view porn;
- Age 12-17 are the largest group who view porn.

Let's say it plainly. Hell is real and porn can land you there. Porn is designed to land you there. Forever. On whose authority? The Son of God. He admonished us not to "fear that which can destroy the body, but that which can destroy the soul"; (Luke 12:4-5). Do you believe it? "[Jesus came] to give us the freedom... [from] the enslavement the devil has over us... On this point, there are no nuances. There is a battle and a battle where salvation is at play, eternal salvation. We must always be on guard, on guard against deceit, against the seduction of evil." - Pope Francis Hell is real, but porn is also one of Satan's means of ensnaring victims in a very real and tangible hell here and now. Neuroscientists have explained how porn radically re-wires how men and women think about themselves and one another. Porn scrambles a built-in "adhesive" meant to bond a man and woman forever in sacramental marriage. Porn is like two pieces of duct tape stuck together, only to be ripped apart. And again. And again. For every instance of porn. What happens to the "stickiness" of the tape? What happens to the tape? This is a remote idea of what porn does to a soul. And why porn is responsible for destroying countless marriages, families and relationships. To understand porn we need to understand something about God's design for purity in connection to the sexual urge. Another of Satan's great attacks has been brainwashing many of us into regarding the sexual urge as something divorced from purity, as something "dirty", or simply "our own thing," distant from God. Of course, porn reinforces this.

To the contrary, the pure sexual urge is a God-given, built-in compass whose True North is God Himself. It is about our ultimate, eternal end of intimacy with God, and in Him, with all others. It is about Holy Communion. As Pope St. John Paul II suggested, the heart of the sexual urge is an urge to a completion that can only be found in God. The sexual urge is the capacity for man and woman to literally make God, who is love, known – through total, mutual, self-giving love.

And it must be emphasized that this capacity for divine-human communion is no less possible for those who are not married. In fact, whether a priest, religious, or single, the very same urge is simply directed in different ways of worshiping God, of making Him known.

Porn tells a lie to the deepest desire of souls, promising a kind of intimacy, but only delivers intensity. It promises transcendence, but delivers slavery. Cut off from God, porn paves the way to disrespect for others, promiscuity, infidelity and even violence. Porn engenders deep guilt, shame and helplessness, a brick wall keeping the Niagara Falls of God's grace from flooding into our lives.

"Let us always remember... that the Adversary wants to keep us separated from God and therefore instills disappointment in our hearts when we do not see our apostolic commitment immediately rewarded. Every day the devil sows the seeds of pessimism and bitterness in our hearts. ... Let us open ourselves to the breath of the Holy Spirit, who never ceases to sow seeds of hope and confidence." - Pope Francis

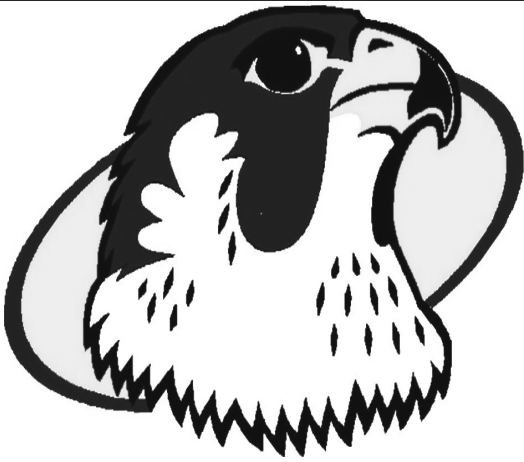

Let's be honest about our challenges. Our Enemy is cunning. We have to know our vulnerability and minimize his influence. We have to open our hearts to the graces that come from prayer and the sacraments by eliminating the near occasions of sin. There is blocking software called "Catholic Covenant Eyes" that can help. It's a little expensive: $14 per month. But check out their website, www.covenanteyes.com, and decide if it's worth it to you. (to be continued next week)

ALL SOULS DEVOTION: Our annual service for parishioners who have died in the last twelve months will take place on Sunday, November 1 at 2:00. It will consist of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Vespers of All Saints Day, reading of the names of those who have died, presentation of memorial candles and Benediction. Relatives of those who have died will receive an individual invitation, but all parishioners are welcome to participate. We need a volunteer reader and two servers.

HOLY HOUR FOR VOCATIONS: The Diocese has asked for a Holy Hour for vocations to take place at several parishes on Wednesday, November 4 at 7 p.m. It will take place here at Saint Anthony. Our neighboring parishes will be invited to join us. We need a volunteer reader and two servers.

"PERPETUATE THE GIFT" is the annual diocesan collection for the retired priests' pension plan. Priests (and presumably Protestant ministers) are among the few employees whose expenses actually go up upon retirement. An active priest receives food and housing from his parish; a retired priest is on his own. His monthly pension check is an absolute necessity. Please help maintain this fund. Envelopes are in the pews today.
