In today's gospel Jesus was publicly AFFIRMED by His Father:
 "You are my beloved Son, with you I am very pleased."
 As parents we can become so focused on misbehaviors we overlook the good behaviors.
 Jesus needed AFFIRMATION and so do our children.

A Note from Fr. Tom

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER: Marriage Encounter, the Catholic program for helping good marriages become great, will be taking place next weekend, January 15-17 at the Holiday Inn in Perrysburg. There is space for ten more couples. You may sign up as late as this Friday. Just call Brian and Chris at 419-538-7210. Father Harry Brown is on the team for this weekend. Non-Catholic spouses are welcome to take part.

AN ADULT CHRIST AT CHRISTMAS (part 1): No, we aren't procrastinating by leaving the Nativity set up. It's the feast of the Lord's Baptism. It's the day when we make a transition from the child Jesus to the adult Jesus, and from the Christmas Season to Ordinary Time. Jesus begins His public ministry by going down to the Jordan River and having Himself baptized by His cousin John. He stands there in line with the crowds, waiting His turn. Strictly speaking, He doesn't need to be baptized; as Son of God, He has no sin to repent of. He is there at the river because He wants to be in solidarity with all sinners. He will take on Himself the punishment due for all their sins. As John the Baptist described Him, He is the Lamb of God who will take away the sins of the world.

At the Epiphany, the coming of the Wise Men showed forth Jesus as the savior of all nations. Today's feast shows Him as the one who takes on Himself our sins. It also shows Jesus as the Second Person of the Trinity. The Father's voice is heard proclaiming Jesus as the beloved Son, and the Holy Spirit descends on Him to show that His life and ministry are filled with the Holy Spirit.

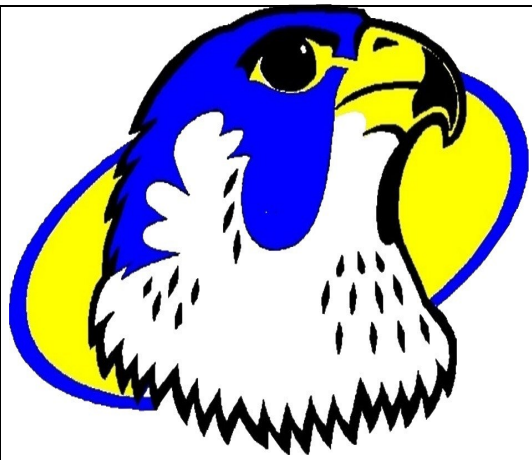

How does Jesus' baptism make a difference in our lives today? I believe that first it shows that we can't pretend to be superior to anyone. Jesus stood with sinners waiting to be baptized; later in life the charge against Him would be that He "ate with sinners and welcomed them." This Year of Mercy reminds us that our vocation is to welcome sinners to fullness of life with the Lord. The spiritual opposite of mercy is "holier than thou", an attitude that Jesus often condemned. Jesus' baptism also reminds us of the blessing that we have received through the Sacrament of Baptism. Sin doesn't rule over us; God welcomes us into His family as beloved sons and daughters. God's welcome makes us confident enough to let the Holy Spirit work through us, just as He did through Jesus. With God's welcome, we can dare to be people who are merciful, just, and committed in our relationships.

PILGRIMAGES: Most of us can't go to Rome for the Holy Year, but Pope Francis wants to make the blessings of the Holy Year available to as many of us as possible. We have the privilege of four Holy Doors located in our diocese, with the same spiritual benefits offered here as for people who go to Rome. I would like to propose a parish pilgrimage to Carey, where a Holy Door is located. I would like a few people to work with me on questions like the date, the means of transportation, food, and what we will do when we get there. Call, see, or e-mail me if you are interested.

Another possible pilgrimage is of a totally secular nature: to the Fort Wayne Tin Caps minor-league ballpark for a game. The team offers a great variety of ticket/meal packages. Again, I would like to work with a few parishioners to make the necessary arrangements.

Dear Heavenly Father from above,
Look down on Saint Anthony's School

Please guide them and teach them.

Fill them with your power
So that in everything they do,
They will be a delight to you!

Kindergarten News: In Health class this week students learned about Nutrition and "My Plate". Each student learned "My Plate" shows us the 5 food groups we are to eat daily. All students, individually, made their own "My Plate" and built themselves a healthy lunch. Students had to tell Mrs. Donaldson which food group each selected food item belonged in on "My Plate". They loved it! Students just ate it up!
