The Habitat ReStore ~ The Habitat ReStore in Lima carries new and gently used building materials, furniture, appliances, paint, hardware and much more! Their selection is typically priced at 50%-75% off the typical retail price. It's a great place to find a good deal and many people's first stop when looking for that hard to find or unique item. The best reason for shopping at the ReStore isn't all the great deals, though. Shopping at the ReStore benefits the local community in two more important ways. One of those community benefits is keeping usable items out of the trash. The ReStore offers a free pick-up service of quality donations as well as donation drop-offs at the store. Many donors report that their items would've been thrown away if not for this service. In fact, based on ReStore sales figures it is estimated that the Lima ReStore kept 3,000 tons of material out of local landfills last year alone! The best reason to shop at the ReStore; however, is that all profits are used to benefit the mission of Habitat for Humanity to provide simple, decent housing for deserving families in Lima and surrounding communities. And shopping isn't the only way to support the ReStore in this mission. Donating is a great way to get involved! The ReStore is always looking for more quality donations, and our free pick-up service makes it quick and easy! Another crucial way to help is through volunteering. The ReStore is always looking for people willing to join in the effort to support Habitat for Humanity. Volunteer needs at the ReStore cover the gamut including cashier help, cleaning donations, appliance and furniture repair, building projects and more! If you are interested in shopping, volunteering or donating please stop by the ReStore at 550 W. Elm St. in Lima, or contact us at 419-222-4257 or www.restorelima.org.

A Note from Fr. Tom

PARISH SURVEY ON FEB. 27-28: Parish Council has asked for a parish survey to make sure we are meeting parishioners' spiritual needs, and to help us with planning for the future. We will take this survey (5 minutes or so) before Mass on February 27-28. It will also be available on our website, and will be mailed to all our snowbird members who have escaped the snow and cold.

POPE IN MEXICO: On his first day in Mexico, Pope Francis celebrated Mass and preached at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. He referred to Mary's words to St. Juan Diego: "I am your merciful Mother. The merciful Mother of all of you who live united in this land, and of all mankind, of all those who love me. Here I will hear their weeping, their sorrow, and will remedy, and alleviate all their multiple sufferings, necessities and misfortunes." The Pope's comments on these words were, I think, a great help to the sick and to those who carry burdens of any other kind:

"Mary tells us that she has 'the honor' of being our mother, assuring us that those who suffer do not weep in vain. These ones are a silent prayer rising to heaven, always finding a place in Mary's mantle. In her and with her, God has made himself our brother and companion along the journey; he carries our crosses with us so as not to leave us overwhelmed by our sufferings."

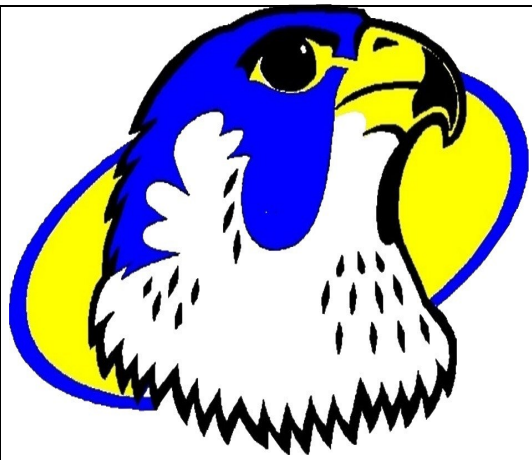

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT and BENEDICTION: We traditionally have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the 8:00 Mass on the First Friday of the month, with Benediction at noon, if Deacon Jim or I are available. Some parishioners have asked for more such opportunities, since they cannot come to church on a weekday morning. The extra Confessions during March will give us a perfect opportunity to learn if more times of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament are possible. (We are not allowed to have Exposition in an empty church.) So during the following times there will be both Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Confession:

Why do we have Exposition and Benediction? The Church gives three reasons. First, we acknowledge Christ's wonderful presence under the form of bread, and we express our faith. The substance of bread is truly changed into the Body of Christ when the priest says the words of consecration. Christ remains present even after the Mass is ended.

Second, Exposition and Benediction are an invitation. "Take and eat," Jesus said. "This is my body, which is given up for you." In Exposition and Benediction, Jesus is inviting us to full communion with Him. Full communion takes place only when we physically consume Him under the forms of bread and wine. He wishes to be our food, our medicine, our comfort, and our hope of eternal life. He wishes to bind us to Himself and to one another for all eternity.

Third, He invites us to worship. Yes, we can pray to Him in our homes, our cars, our fields, or at our favorite beach or park. But in church, the invitation to prayer becomes much more intense and focused. There are many prayers that one might say before Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The pamphlets that we make available are but a sample of all that is out there. But we can pour out our own words of praise, our own requests, our own sorrow for sin before the Lord, and He will accept it all. And sometimes silence before the Lord is the best prayer of all. Saint John Vianney, the great confessor of the 19th century, would at the same time every morning hear a lot of clanking and clattering in church while he was hearing Confessions. And then the clanking and clattering would recur about an hour later. The Saint finally found out that a plumber was making the noise as he carried his tools into church, and then carried them out an hour later. He finally asked the man what he was doing in church. The man replied, "Why, I'm praying." "And how do you pray?" The man replied, "I simply look at the good God, and He looks back at me." The Saint realized that his parishioner the plumber was also a master at prayer.
