*The owner of the fig tree was impatient because the tree did not live up to his expectations.
 In families there are those who don't live up to our expectations.
 Imitate the gardener and give them more time and help.
 Don't cut them out of your life.
 Love asks us to be connected, not productive.*

The Habitat ReStore ~ The Habitat ReStore in Lima carries new and gently used building materials, furniture, appliances, paint, hardware and much more! Their selection is typically priced at 50%-75% off the typical retail price. It's a great place to find a good deal and many people's first stop when looking for that hard to find or unique item. The best reason for shopping at the ReStore isn't all the great deals, though. Shopping at the ReStore benefits the local community in two more important ways. One of those community benefits is keeping usable items out of the trash. The ReStore offers a free pick-up service of quality donations as well as donation drop-offs at the store. Many donors report that their items would've been thrown away if not for this service. In fact, based on ReStore sales figures it is estimated that the Lima ReStore kept 3,000 tons of material out of local landfills last year alone! The best reason to shop at the ReStore; however, is that all profits are used to benefit the mission of Habitat for Humanity to provide simple, decent housing for deserving families in Lima and surrounding communities. And shopping isn't the only way to support the ReStore in this mission. Donating is a great way to get involved! The ReStore is always looking for more quality donations, and our free pick-up service makes it quick and easy! Another crucial way to help is through volunteering. The ReStore is always looking for people willing to join in the effort to support Habitat for Humanity. Volunteer needs at the ReStore cover the gamut including cashier help, cleaning donations, appliance and furniture repair, building projects and more! If you are interested in shopping, volunteering or donating please stop by the ReStore at 550 W. Elm St. in Lima, or contact us at 419-222-4257 or www.restorelima.org.

Dimples and Grins Mothers Club ~ The Dimples and Grins Mothers Club from Fort Jennings is sponsoring a bus trip to Cleveland on June 10 & 11, 2016. Trip includes transportation, Wyndham hotel room at Playhouse Square, 3 hour Cuyahoga Valley scenic railroad trip, 2 meals, gratuity, and more. Cost is $170 for double occupancy, $255 single. Contact Sharon Calvelage at 419-306-0367.

REBOOT LIVE ~ Chris Stefanick inspires you to a contagious faith. He presents for high school and college youth. Archbishop Charles J. Chaput calls Chris, "one of the most engaging young defenders of the Christian faith on the scene today." He authored and presents in the Confirmation program, Chosen. Visit www.reallifecatholic.com for more information. He is presenting Reboot Live! at St. Augustine, in Minster, Ohio on Wednesday, March 2, 2016 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. along with a concert. Tickets are $19.00 each and can be purchased on his website at www.reallifecatholic.com Sorry for the last minute notification.

A Note from Fr. Tom

MASS FOR SHUT-INS and CATHOLIC CHRONICLE : Because of the present state of diocesan finances, the Mass for Shut-Ins and the Catholic Chronicle are being discontinued. In the letter from Bishop Thomas that we are making available to you, he spells out the reasons for taking these steps in detail. It appears that our locally produced Mass is duplicating a service that EWTN provides on Sundays at midnight, 8 a.m. and noon. Is there anyone in the parish who cannot receive EWTN? If so, please let me know and I will forward the information to the Bishop's office.

I began reading the Catholic Chronicle back in grade school, when it still had a Catholic comic page. I gradually moved on to more in-depth reading, and continued to look forward to its arrival right up to the present. While I didn't read every word, I found a large amount of helpful information in its pages. There are not too many places where you can get accurate information about the diocesan, national and worldwide Church. Many daily papers appoint religion editors who have no faith background; they frequently miss the point of what the Church is trying to do, and get side-tracked into some unimportant issue. And there are religion editors out there who are downright hostile toward the Catholic Church (as an example, the New York Times reported that "hundreds" of people marched in the recent March for Life in Washington DC).

For those who are interested in keeping up with the rest of the Catholic world, I would recommend a subscription to Our Sunday Visitor or the National Catholic Register. These are both rather conservative publications. For those who appreciate more coverage of social justice issues, I would recommend America magazine. If you want something that is free, you can get a daily newsletter e-mailed to you from www.newadvent.org. This website sometimes wastes your time with Catholic trivia, but there is a lot of spiritual food there. Give it a try and see what you think.

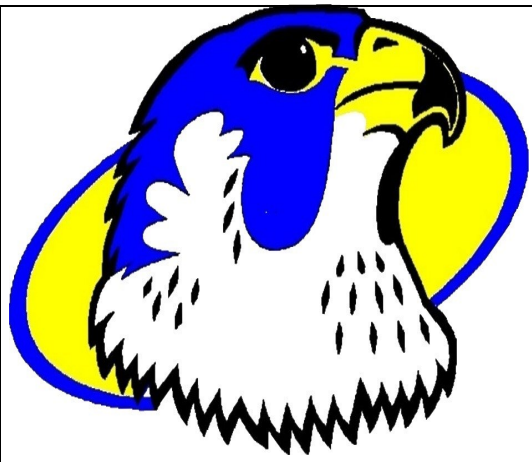

CONFESSION and PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT: As part of the Year of Mercy, Bishop Thomas has asked us to offer extra Confessions during Lent. For "The Light Is On", I will place the Blessed Sacrament on the altar and then begin hearing Confessions. Times are 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Wednesdays, March 2, 9, 16 and 23; and from noon to 2 p.m. on Thursdays, March 3, 10, and 17. And Life Teen has asked for a penance service with Exposition today at 8:15 p.m. Extra priests from our area will be present at some of these times. Grade school students will come to Confession on the three Thursdays listed above, but there will be plenty of opportunity for everyone else.

Besides the request from the Bishop, there's a request from Pope Francis for "24 Hours with the Lord", consisting of Confession and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Our deanery is collaborating on this spiritual exercise. Our parish's share of "24 Hours with the Lord" will take place next Saturday beginning with Morning Prayer and Exposition at 8 a.m., and concluding with Benediction at 4 p.m. Confessions will be available through all this time. For part of the time, more than one priest will be available. And don't forget the traditional parish penance service on Monday, March 14 at 7 p.m.

If that's not enough, this Friday is First Friday. Our Lord will be present in the monstrance on the altar from about 8:45 until noon.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER, THE PRICE OF SILVER and DORITOS: Two Wednesdays ago, the reading at Mass was from the Book of Esther, which unfortunately happens only rarely. In this book, the evil Prime Minister Haman bribes the king of Persia with 10,000 pounds of silver to obtain permission to slaughter all the Jews in the kingdom. The Jewish Queen Esther, after intense prayer, is able to save the day. I asked the upper-grade students to calculate the present-day value of 10,000 pounds of silver, and promised a prize for accurate answers. Successful competitors had to go on line, find the current price of silver on the New York exchange, and then show how well they could multiply. The following received a pound of Doritos for accurate work: Brandon Buescher, Jared Kahle, Gwen Langhals, William Pohl, and Levi Schroeder. Smaller prizes went to the other participants: Bo Birnesser, Hunter Sudlow, and Landen Wilcox. Why Doritos? Because their Super Bowl commercial was both pro-life and funny. Who says faith formation can't be fun?
