*Cell phones, emails, faxes, texts and voice mails can reduce our lives to a continual series of interrupted moments. Listen to Jesus in today's gospel: You are anxious about many things, robbing us of the precious time needed to BE with others.
 Quality time is QUANTITY time.*

Country Store ~ It's that time of year again! We had a WONDERFUL variety last year and hope to do the same this year. In previous years some of the raffle items included: corn hole games, processed hog, Blessed Virgin garden statue, toy barn, bikes, electric scooters, John Deere items, Case IH items, stained glass items, garden bench, kids' games/toys, jewelry, blankets, a wide variety of gift cards and MANY MORE. Scrip cards are always a good idea. All items are very much appreciated. Thanks for your generosity! If you have any questions, please call Kate Morman at 419-659-6085 or Lynn Downing at 419-659-5372.

Cash or Car! With the success we had last year and the many positive comments, we will again be raffling off up to $20,000 toward the purchase of a new vehicle or $15,000 in cash at the summer festival this year. The advantage of this approach has been that the winner can purchase any new vehicle of any color. It also gives the winner the option of taking cash and not having the hassle of selling the vehicle. H & K Chevrolet from Continental has again offered to showcase their new vehicles for our festival. If you would like to purchase tickets or if you have any questions, call Mike Birkemeier at 419-659-2954 or Mark Edelbrock at 419-659-2269. Friday ~ We will be setting up the hall and the outside booths, Friday, August 5th at 6:00 p.m.

Saturday ~ We will be cleaning the chicken on Saturday, August 6th at 8:00 a.m. in the church basement. Please bring your poultry scissors or a sharp knife you prefer to use. We only need to clean the chicken. The chicken is already cut into pieces.

Monday ~ Festival clean up will be Monday, August 8th at 8:00 a.m.

If you can come and help with any of the above even for a short while, please come. These jobs can be completed in one hour if we have volunteers. This year we will also have young adults available to babysit for toddlers and young children while the volunteers help with the coleslaw, cutting up the beef and cleaning the chicken. So if you can help, feel free to bring your little ones along!

Emergency Request For Blood Donors! ~ Right now, the American Red Cross has a significant blood shortage and is issuing an emergency request for eligible blood and platelet donors of all blood types to roll up a sleeve now and help save lives. With less than a five-day blood supply on hand, your blood is more important than ever! Blood donations are being distributed to hospitals faster than donations are coming in. On July 22nd, I am partnering with the American Red Cross to host a blood drive at the Columbus Grove American Legion from 1:00 p.m.- 7:00 p.m. To schedule an appointment, please visit redcrossblood.org and enter sponsor code: AMERLEGCOLUMBUSGROVE. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 567-242-8316. Thanks for your generous donation!

Hello Parish Family, My name is Ashley Langhals and I graduated in May from Bowling Green State University with a degree in speech therapy. While there, I found a passion for serving others. I have decided to join the Jesuit Volunteer Corps and do a year of volunteer work as my next endeavor. I will be moving to Syracuse, New York, in August to work at the Vincent House owned by Catholic Charities. The Vincent House offers youth a safe, supportive, and positive alternative to the distressed neighborhood environment in the Westside neighborhood of Syracuse. I will work in the Universal Pre-Kindergarten, After-School Elementary, and Teen Program assisting in planning daily activities, greeting youth as they arrive at the center, helping supervise free-time activity and snack distribution, and facilitating a small group of youth during programs. In order to make my trip successful I need to do some fundraising. So, I am doing odd jobs to raise money for my trip. I can pull weeds, mulch, wash windows, clean house, or anything else that you need done for a donation to my trip. So if you or anyone you know needs some work done, please call or email me at 419-340-7052 lashley@bgsu.edu. Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you.

A Note from Fr. Tom

LIVES MATTER: When I was very young and growing up in Toledo, I was taught to be careful around black people. Later on I found out that they were taught to be careful around white people. We were taught to lock our doors and watch our money. They were taught to always follow orders and to never act superior. Since those days, race relations have had their ups and downs. Right now we are in a “down” period – probably the farthest “down” we’ve been since President Obama was elected. People are trying to find a way to come together and achieve some mutual understanding, but there are also voices of hate among whites and blacks both. I listened to a panel discussion on Fox News with about twenty people, both black and white, representing middle-of-the-road views and extreme views. Some sensible people spoke whose words were a challenge to white and black people alike. Others on the panel spoke messages full of hate.

I’m not sure what people in this parish think of President George W. Bush, but I thought he said something very wise at the public funeral for the five slain officers. He said, “Argument turns too easily into animosity. Disagreement escalates too quickly into de-humanization. Too often, we judge other groups by their worst examples, while judging ourselves by our best intentions. And this has strained our bonds of understanding and common purpose.”

So how do we get to a state where all lives matter – black lives, Muslim lives, Putnam County lives?

- First, admit our own failings. We’ve turned a blind eye to minorities and their difficulties too long.
- Second, don’t judge an entire group by the worst examples among their ranks. My experience in the central city was that black people want the same things we do: that they, their elders, and their children be treated with dignity; that their children have the education they need for a secure, happy future; and that their property be secure. Black people shouldn’t be judged by the criminal element among them, or by some of their self-proclaimed “leaders” with radical messages.
- Third, teach your children well. Teach them to respect all people, and to speak of them as is fitting for God’s children. Also show them what Christian marriage looks like: a man and a woman in a loving, perpetual, faithful commitment. Too often our problems today stem from kids having to raise themselves because the parents are too occupied with some private pursuit like money or sports. Or the parents are dealing with an addiction, and they have no energy left to deal with kids. Kids who raise themselves are prone to apathy, anger, and finding violent ways to cope. Many kids of this parish will eventually leave Putnam County. If they have the right ideals about marriage, they and their future spouses may be able to positively influence someone who grew up with the wrong ideals, or with no ideals at all.
- Fourth, pray. President Obama, whom I often disagree with, quoted the prophet Ezekiel and said that we need to ask God to take away our hearts of stone and give us hearts of flesh. Pray for families, pray for our country, pray for its leaders and for those who want to become leaders. Prayer will teach us all how to be on God’s side, and He will give all of us the courage to change so that all lives matter.

THANKS TO OUR WORKERS: Thanks to Shane Sudlow, who used his equipment to uproot the overgrown bushes along the east side of the church. Thanks to our summer maintenance staff, Taylor and Alex Giesige, who hauled them to the dump. Thanks to the men of the Knights of Columbus who removed the large fir tree that stood between the rectory and the garage, and who also seal-coated the rectory deck.
